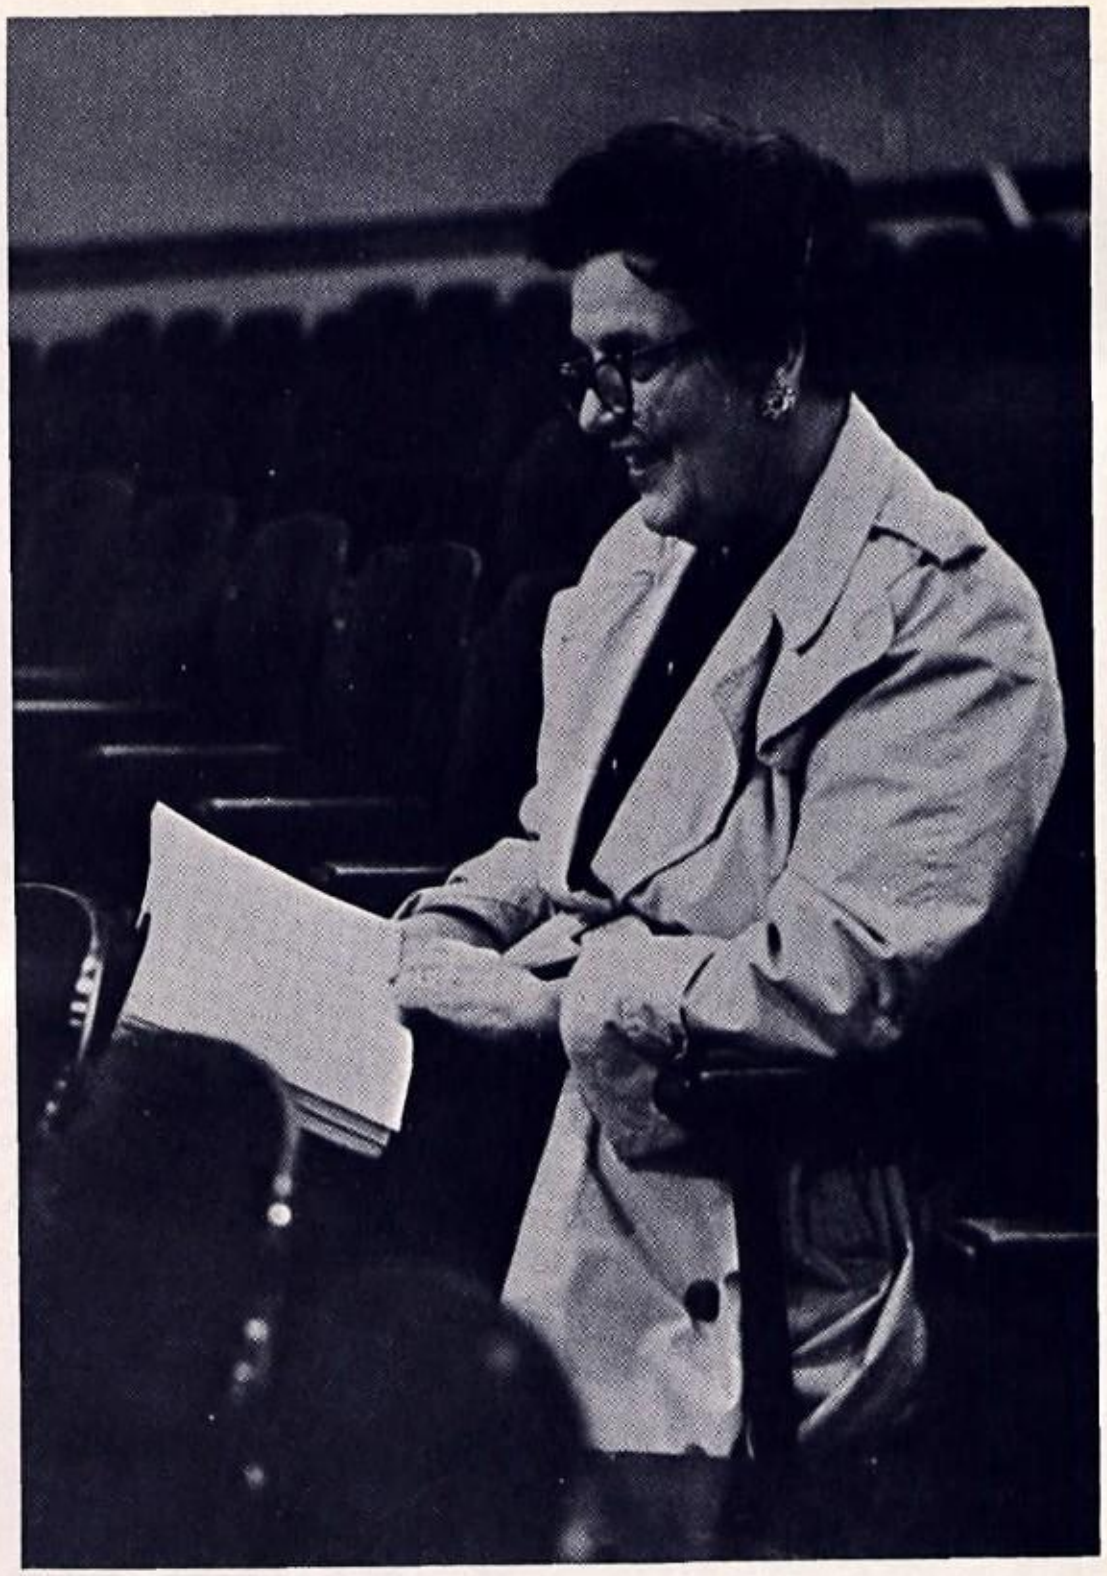
Miss Ella Mary DeVall

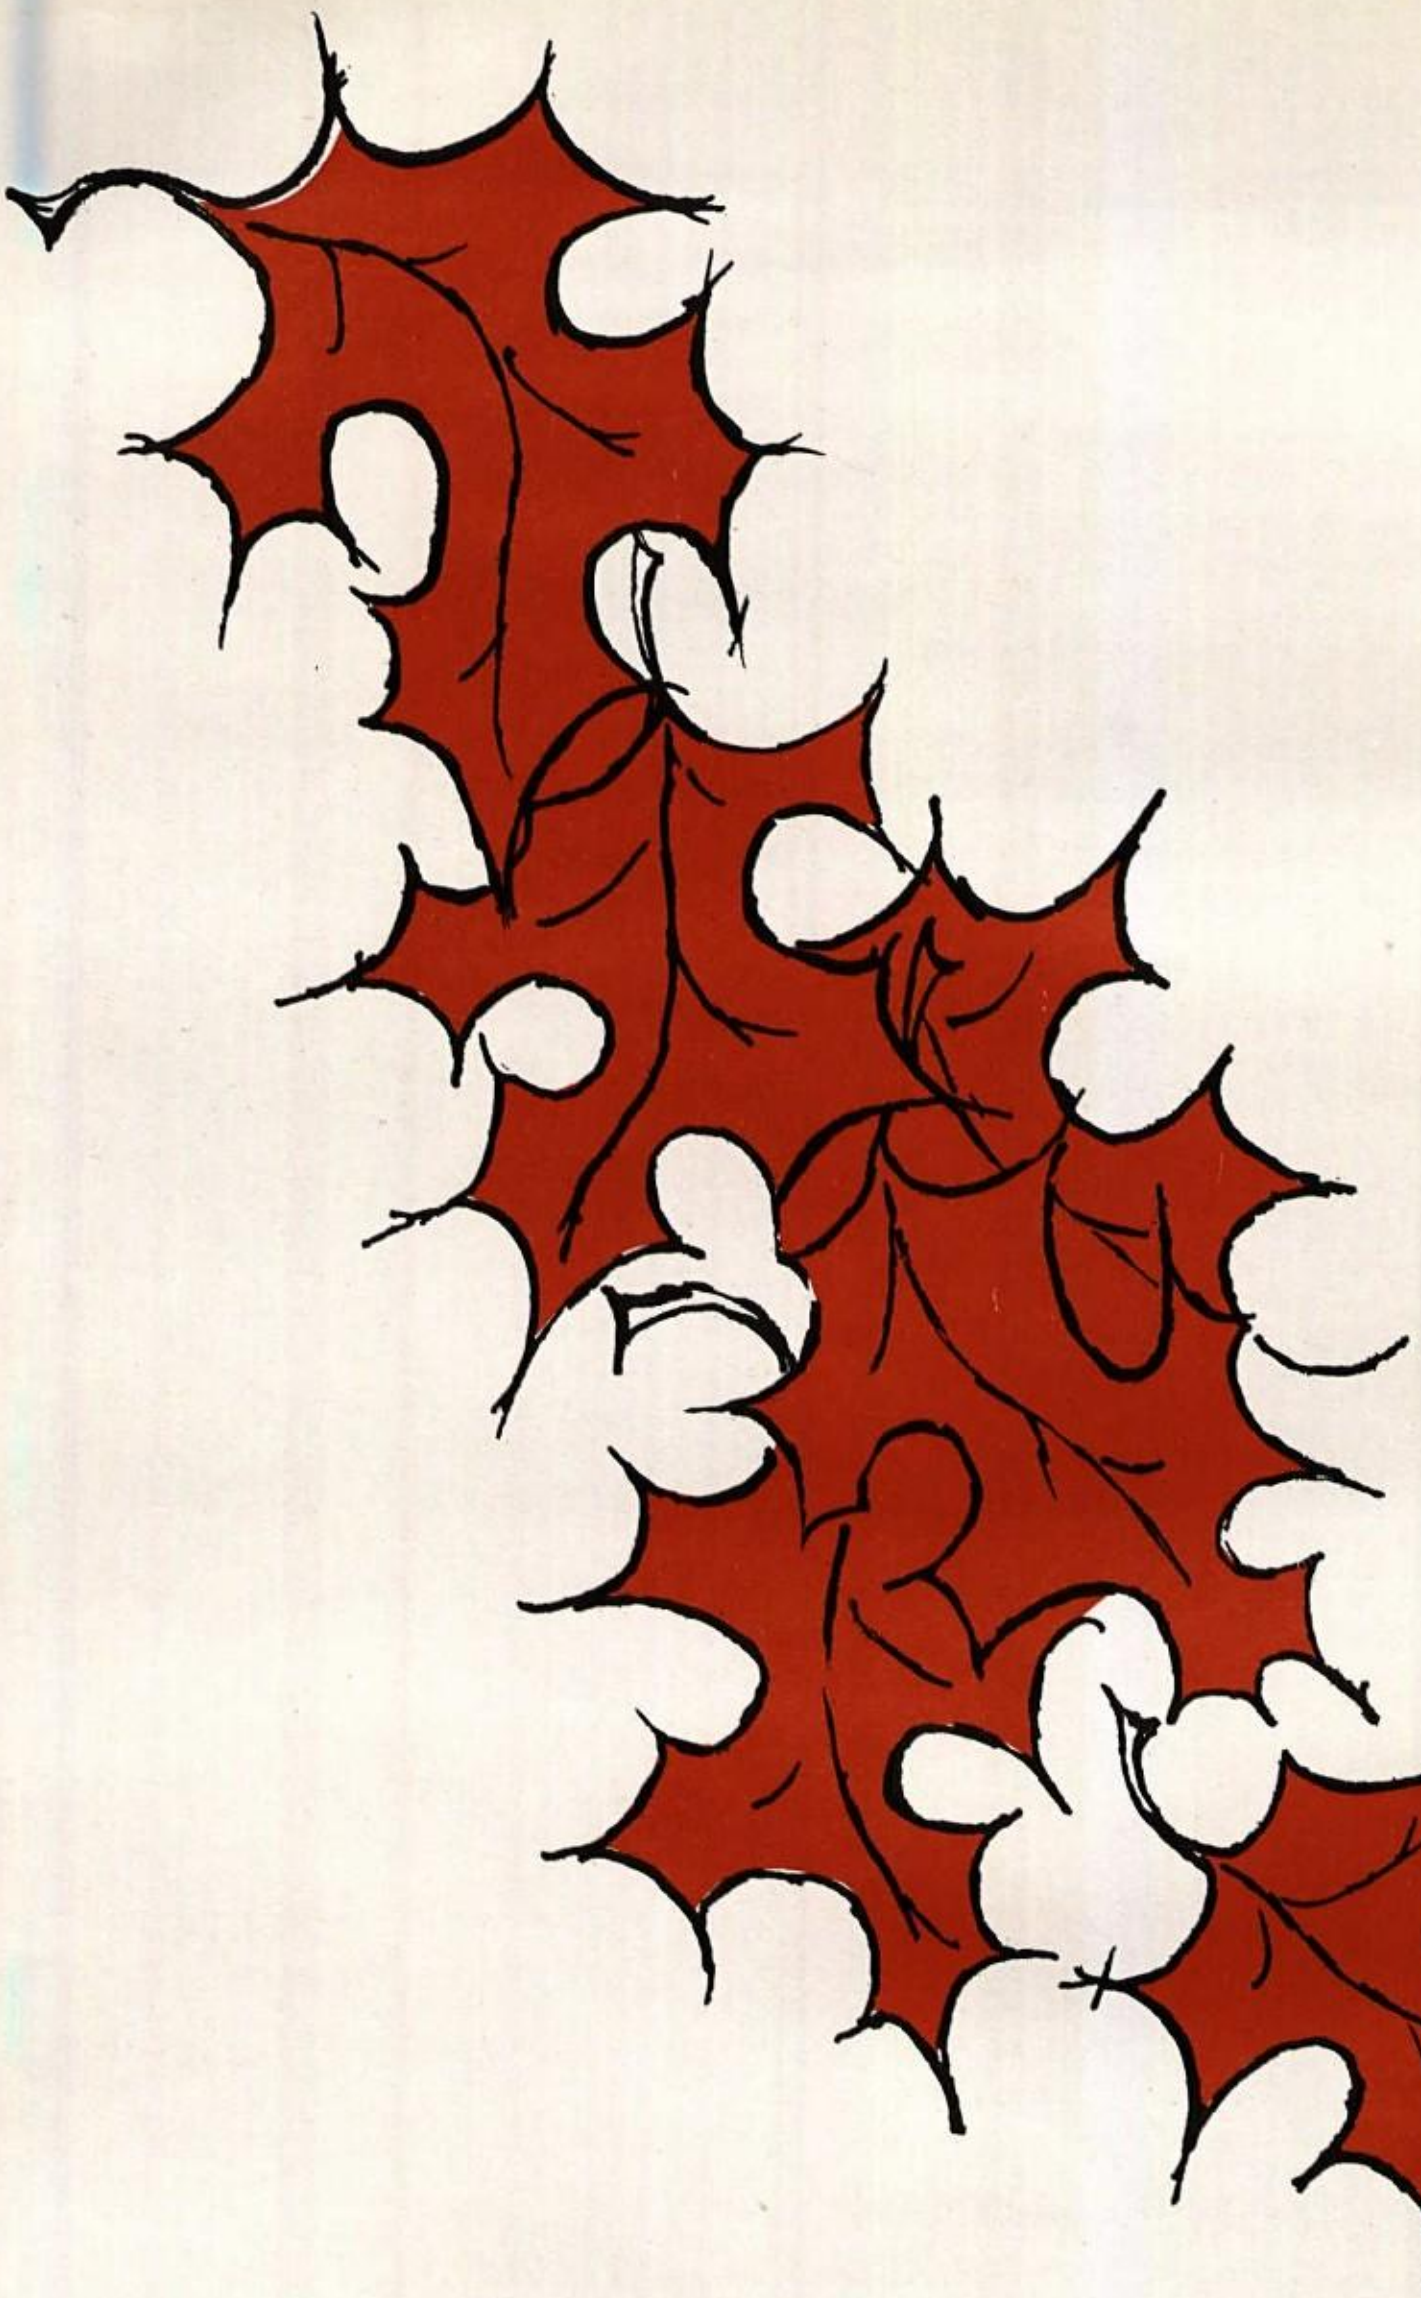
Since coming to Northtown in 1952, Miss Ella Mary DeVall has won the admiration of both students and faculty. In addition to having taught citizenship, United States history, and world history, Miss DeVall has sponsored both junior and senior classes. She has also co-directed the junior class play for the past five years and has been active in many professional organizations. We, the class of 1962, do proudly dedicate this Purgold to you, Miss DeVall.

DEDICATION

The Junior Play finds her taking her job quite seriously as co-director as she gives advice to the actors during rehearsal.

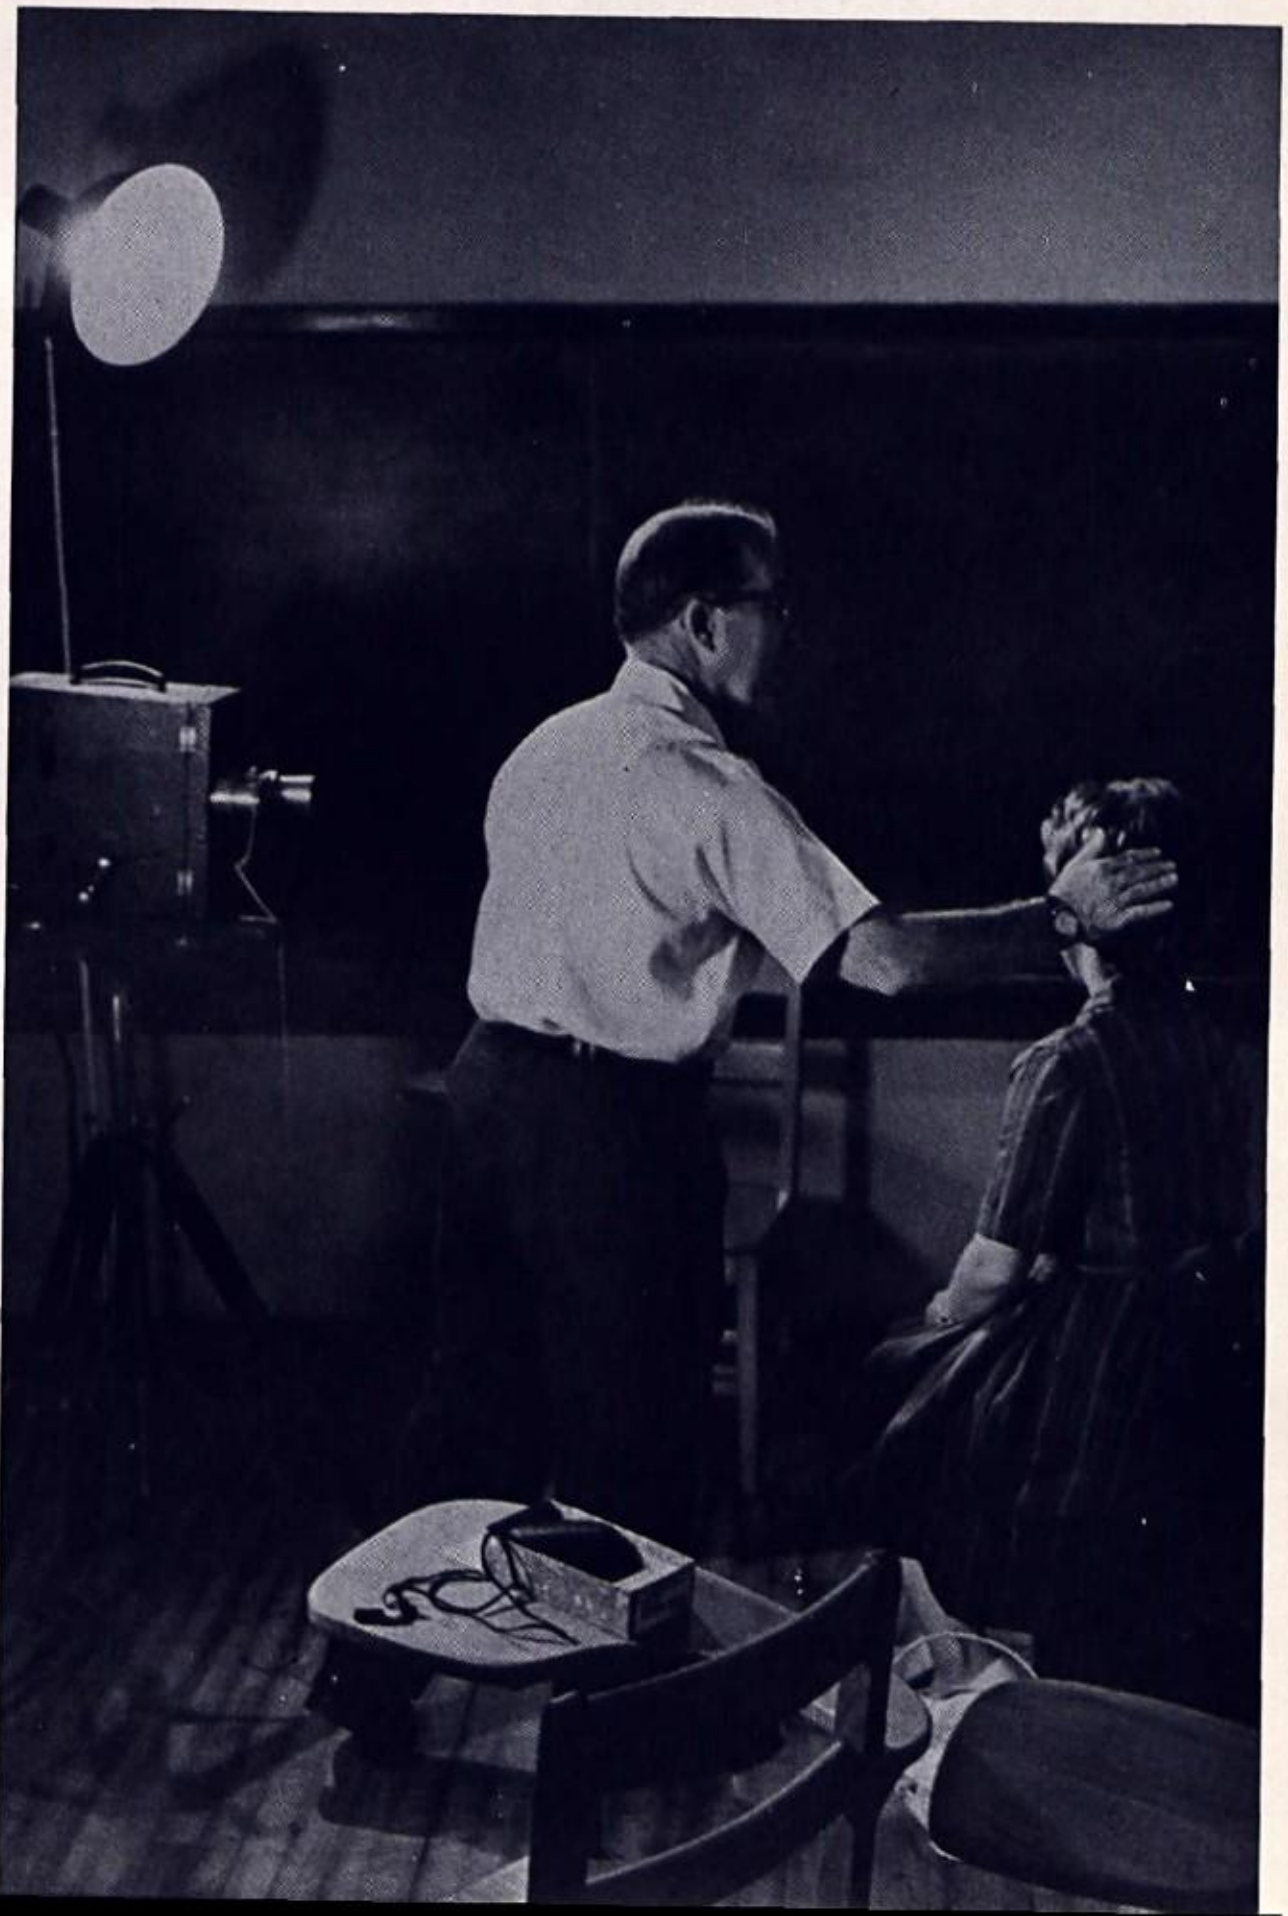


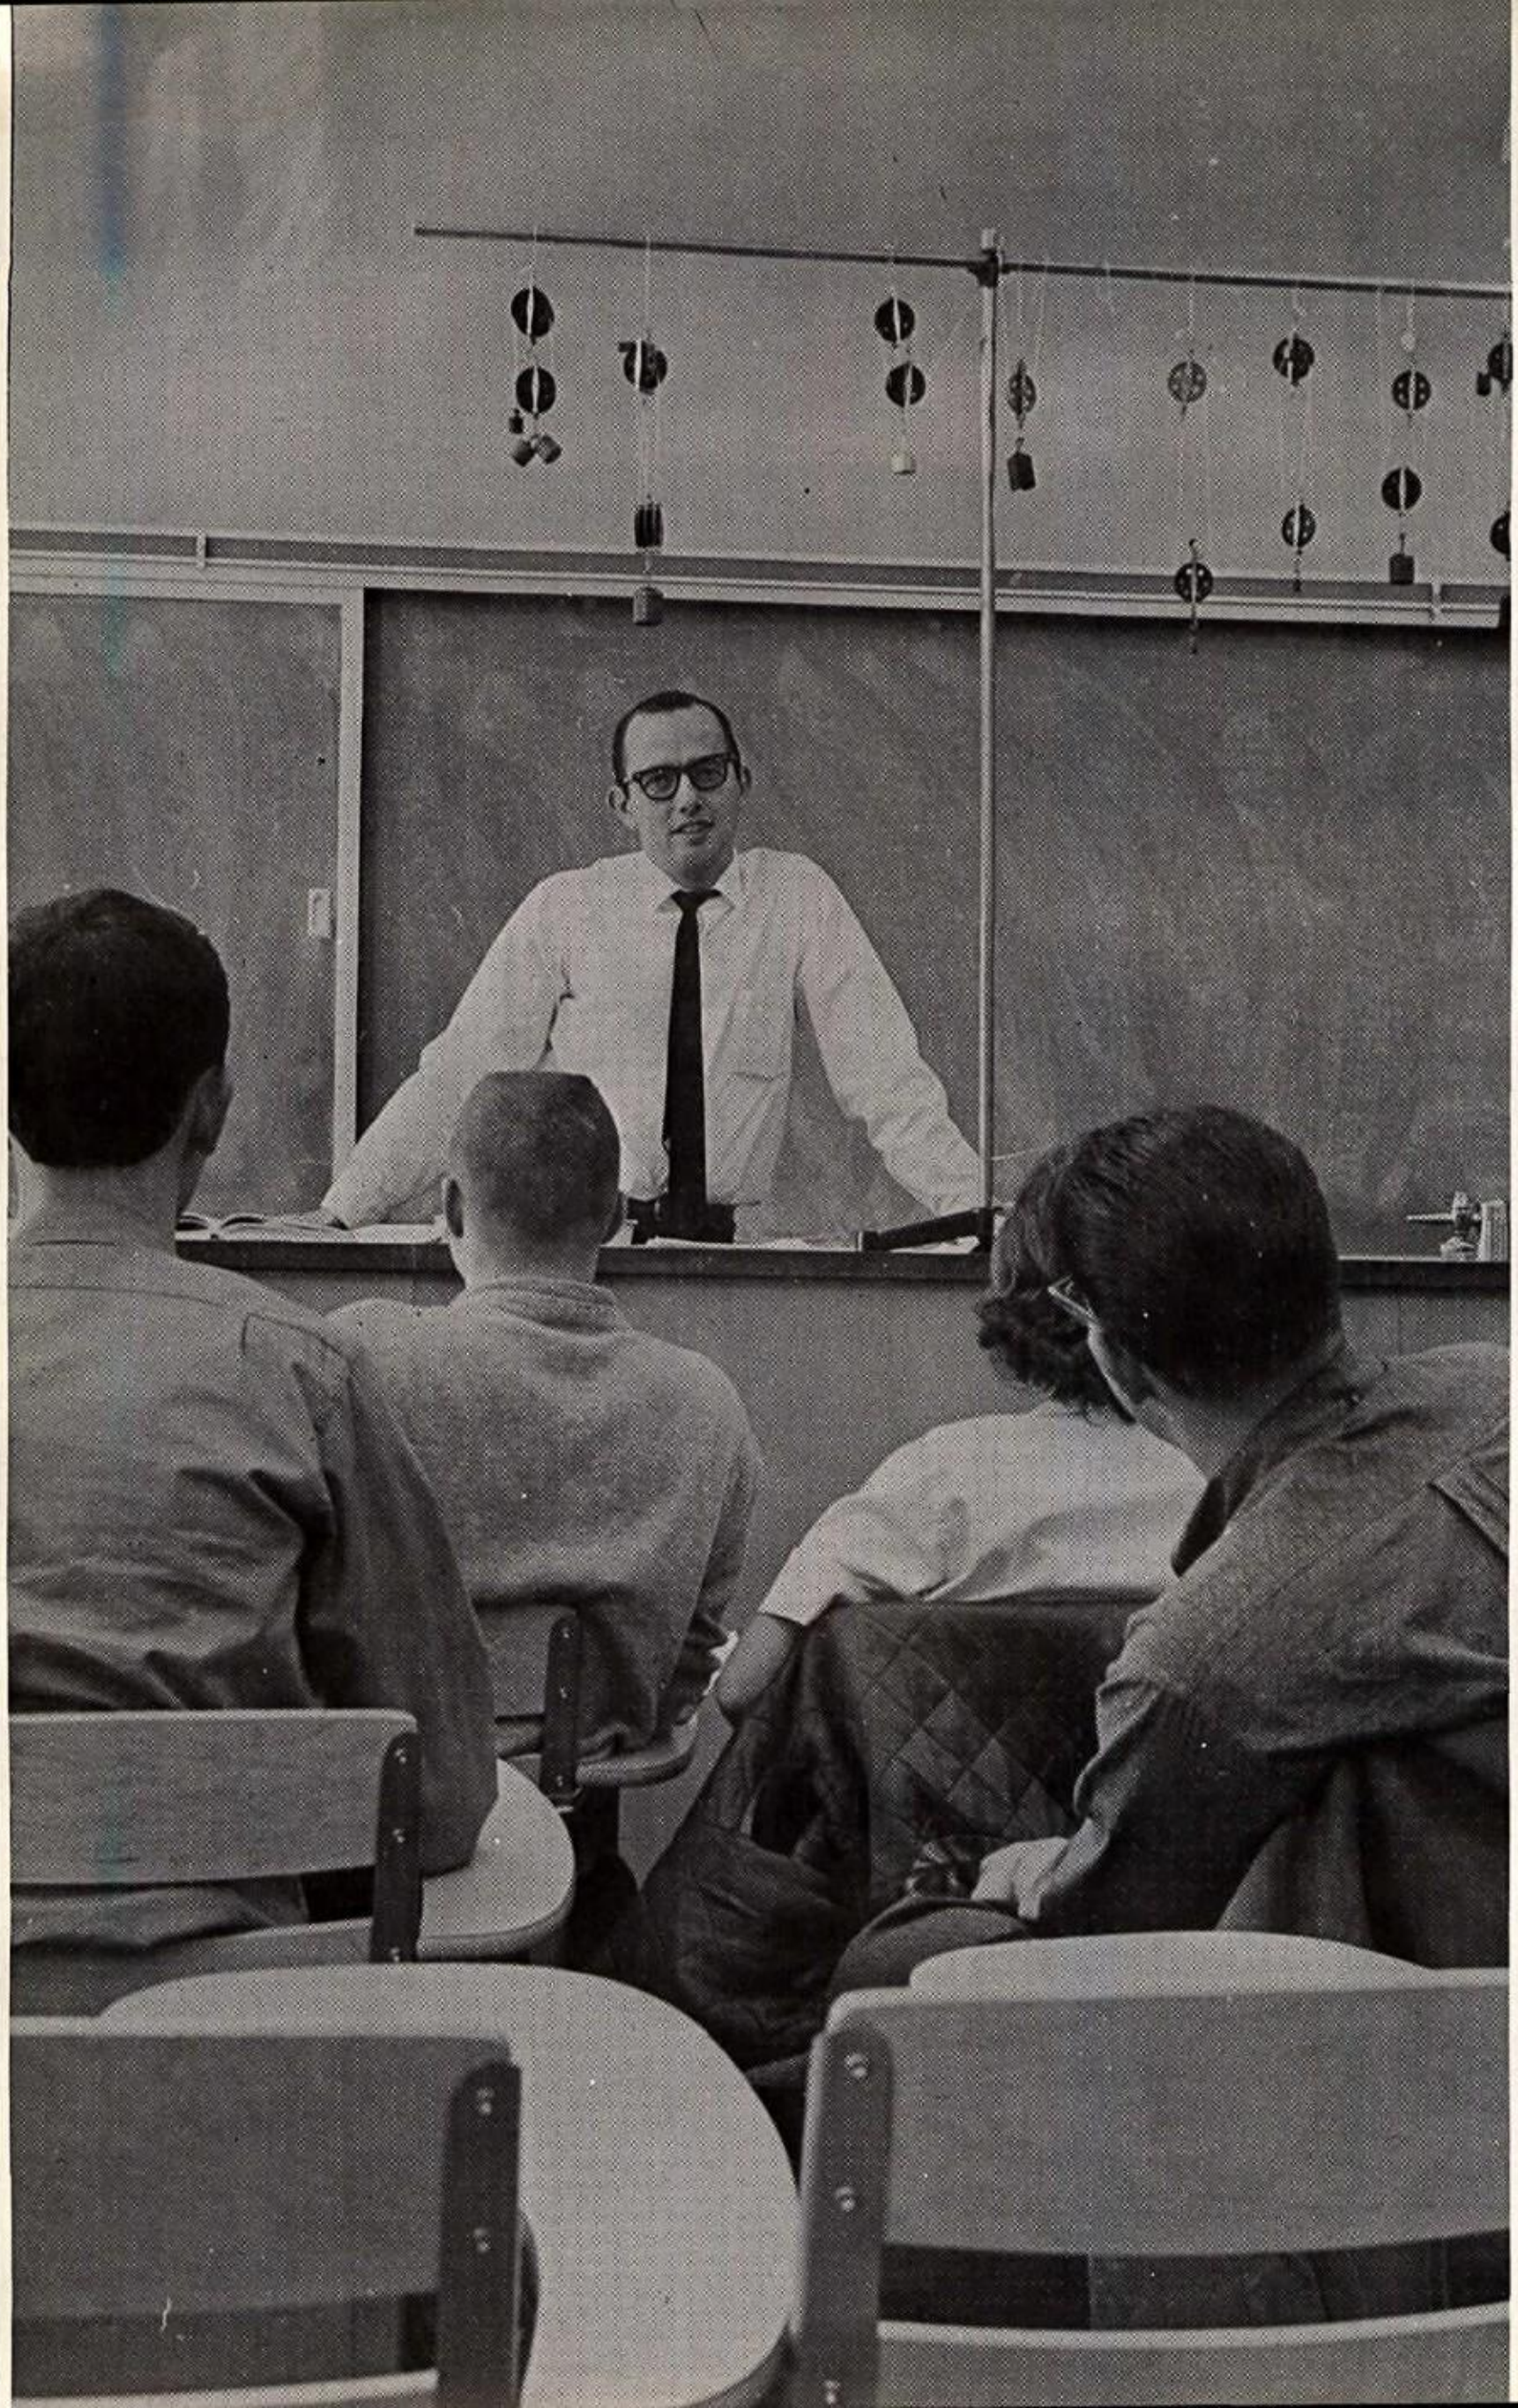
Open House in November gives her a chance to meet the parents of her students of world history.



FALL

Another September dawned . . . loyal Hornets started the registration line at Dagg, paying fees, getting lockers, and renewing old acquaintances . . . the gridiron gang reported for duty and practiced, practiced, practiced, for that BIG GAME . . . meanwhile, back at headquarters, almost 2300 students invaded the halls . . . many startled workmen could be found in the midst of activities hurrying to complete the industrial arts building and library . . . a few Hornets pleaded to make schedule changes while 1,451 underclassmen smiled and had their pictures taken for posterity in the Purgold . . .





Classrooms from Dagg to Norclay to the Annex to the Shops were jammed with note-takers, experimenters, gum-chewers, lovers, readers, writers, and students . . . the year had started . . . future movie stars from the junior class presented the play, "The Green Vine" . . . the "ratted look" was the latest fad in hairstyles . . . floods of enthusiasm came with football season . . .

Fall held surprises for everyone, officers were nominated and elected . . . seven charming girls became candidates for Homecoming queen . . . contests were won and lost . . . a Thanksgiving treat was the opening of the new library which contains over 10,000 books . . . it takes more than four miles of marching to "beat" our band . . . another autumn had come and gone.

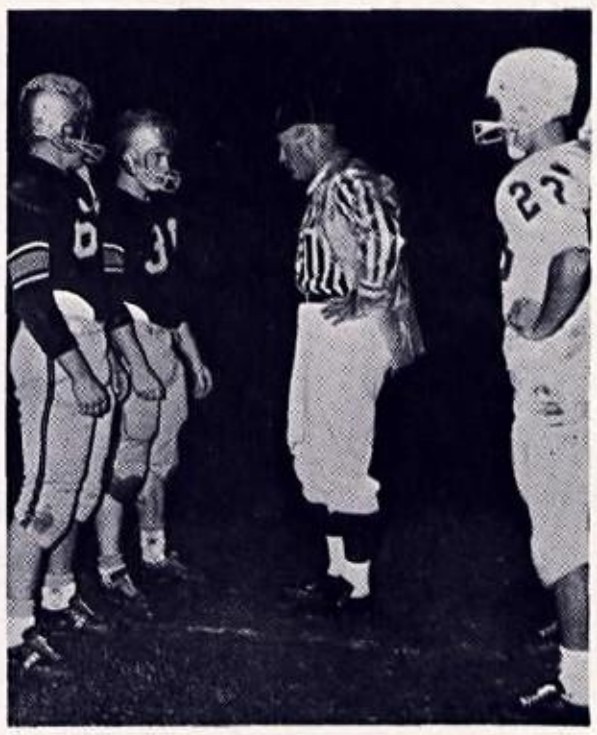
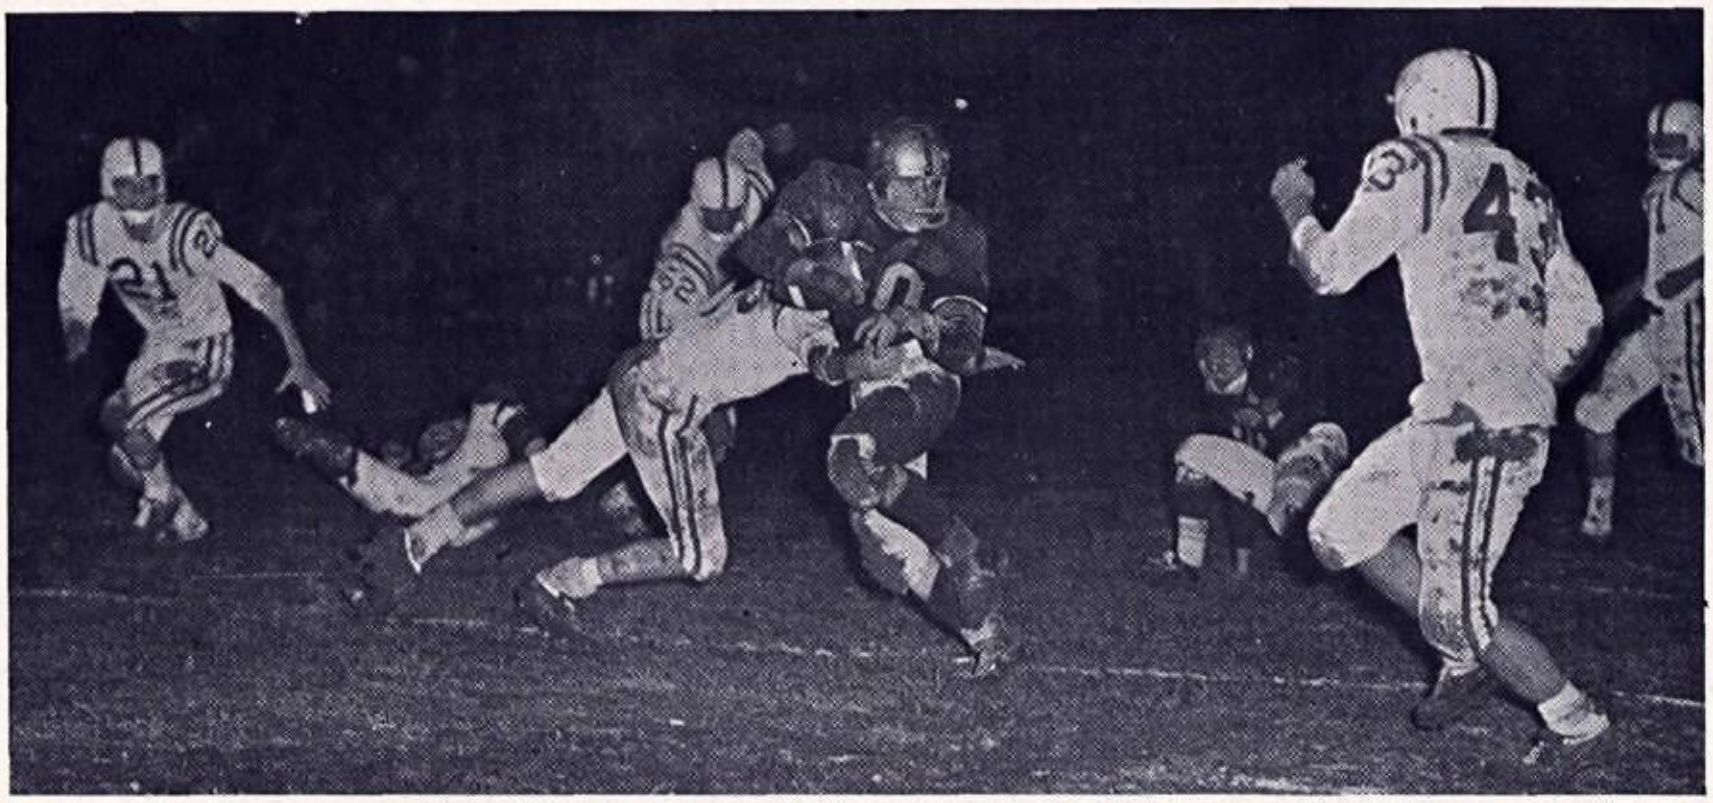
Gary Taney, sophomore halfback, scampers around his own end to gain a first down.



Larry Crooks and Rich Misner get last minute instructions from game official before kick-off.

Larry Harless fights off a horde of would-be Central tacklers.



De LaSalle--In the opening game of the season, the Hornets were unable to start their offense moving and were defeated 13-0 by the Titans of De LaSalle. Defensive standouts for the Hornets were Richard Misner and Larry Goddard. Gary Taney and Larry Harless kept the Hornet attack from bogging down completely.

Benton--North Kansas City won a tremendous victory over St. Joseph Benton, the first conference foe, by a score of 33-0. Larry Schmidt was leading scorer with two T.D.'s to his credit. Gary Taney, Chuck Bishop, Pat McCrite, Jay Cain and Jim Shanks were instrumental in the other three scores.

Westfall takes to the air against Raytown.

Tense teammates watch the action on the field.

Rockhurst--On a rain-soaked Northtown field, Northtown lost their second game to Rockhurst 6-0. After 46 minutes of dead-locked playing, Rockhurst intercepted a pass and scored the deciding points. Mert McCann and Larry Crooks did a fine job of blocking for the Hornet's offense, while Larry Goddard and Jim Shanks stopped the Hawklet offense in key situations. Shawnee-Mission East--North Kansas City spoiled the Lancer's Homecoming by defeating them 14-6. Larry Harless scored the Hornet's first touchdown as a result of Steve Westfall's 63-yard quick-kick deep into Lancer territory. Gary Taney scored the Hornet's final touchdown while Jim Shanks kicked both extra points. Rich Misner, Frank Jones, Larry Goddard, and Steve Wible led the Hornet's defense.

Mert McCann greets his father on Father's Night.

Steve Westfall evades Titan tacklers.

A point-after-touchdown ball gives the spectators a chance to get into the game.

William Chrisman--Scoring 7 points to Chrisman's 21, the Hornets lost their first conference game. Down 21 points at the half, Northtown roared back with Steve Westfall taking the kickoff 85 yards for a touchdown. The Hornets were unable to take advantage of various scoring opportunities in the second half but held Chrisman scoreless.

Wyandotte--Wyandotte, the No. 1 ranked team in the area, were soundly beaten by Northtown by a score of 22-0. Larry Harless led the Hornets with two scores followed by Pat McCrite on a pass from Jay Cain, and a safety by Charles McIntire. Steve Wible, Larry Goddard, and Rich Misner were outstanding defensive secondary men with Jim Shanks and Charles McIntire leading the linemen.

Coach Galbraith elaborates in a chalk talk on the strategy for the next game.

The Hornet defense tries to prevent a Raytown extra point.

Hickman of Columbia--Northtown traveled to far-off Columbia only to be defeated by Hickman 20-7. Steve Westfall scored the lone Hornet tally on a 37-yard run off-tackle in the fourth quarter. Rich Misner, Jim Shanks, and Larry Goddard were defensive standouts.

Lafayette--Long gains, smooth passes and catches, along with hard tackling and blocking, brought the North Kansas City Hornets their second conference victory. Larry Schmidt, Gary Taney, Buddy Shipman, and Steve Westfall scored on runs, while Pete Pritchard scored on a pass from Jay Cain. Bill Blake and Jim Stotts made many key tackles.

The Hornet defense moves in for the kill.

Central--Before a stadium-filled, Homecoming crowd, Northtown secured second place in the conference, with a 13-0 victory. Larry Harless accounted for both touchdowns with Jim Shanks kicking the extra point. Excellent pass defense along with vicious gang tackling kept St. Joseph Central scoreless.

Raytown--In the last game of the season the Hornets gave an inspired performance against Raytown but lost the contest 13-6. On the first play from scrimmage Larry Goddard threw a 35-yard pass to Steve Westfall who ran 60 more yards for a touchdown; however the Hornets were unable to score again. As a result of two pass interference penalities, Raytown obtained the win. Steve Westfall, Larry Goddard, Larry Harless, Don Summers, and Larry Crooks electrified the Hornet's offense. Pat McCrite, Jim Shanks, Rich Misner, and Stan Melson led the defense.

Assemblies

SPACE ASSEMBLY

HOMECOMING ASSEMBLY

DRAMATICS ASSEMBLY

Assemblies this fall have varied from an explanation of football rules and plays to a Homecoming contest in the year 3000. The Spacemobile, carrying scale models of the latest rocket ships and other scientific developments, provided an informative and interesting assembly September 15. Readings, short selections from plays, and a humorous satire on the TV detective show, "Mike Hammer," made the Dramatics Department Assembly quite entertaining. And, of course, the Pep Club showed up at almost every assembly, cheering and yelling the Hornets on to victory.

1961 Homecoming Begins and Ends With Surprises

Candidates Boucher, Powers, and Dunbar see the proof in print.

Candidate Underwood reads the scoop in the Hornet's Buzz.

And the Queen looks pleased at the results.

Happy tears and toothpaste smiles were seen on the faces of the seven Homecoming Queen Candidates as they read their names in the Buzz. For a long, long week the girls hoped that they might be the one to wear the long velvet cape and the royal gold crown. Finally, the great night arrived and Miss Charlotte Fuller smiled through her tears as the crown was placed on her head.

As thousands sat on the edge of their seats, with the cold momentarily forgotten, Jon Hayes crowned a shivering, but radiantly happy Charlotte Fuller 1961 Homecoming Queen. With the applause and screams of the crowd ringing in her ears, Charlotte, escorted by her father, Mr. Alfred Fuller, circled the field in a shiny white convertible.

Mario Ceschia

Mario Ceschia, from Messina, Italy, has spent the school year with Mr. and Mrs. Max Wible and son Steve. Mario has been quite active in Student Counsel, Purgold Staff, A Cappella, Hi-Y, Tri-M, and also in sports.

Ann-Cathrine Carlsson

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Albertson and daughter Shirley were the American family of Ann-Cathrine Carlsson. Ann-Cathrine, from Gothenburg, Sweden, has participated in Student Council, Buzz Staff, Pep Club, and was also a Purgold Attendant.

This year's foreign exchange students were officially welcomed at a reception held in their honor by the Purgold and Buzz Staffs. With their American families, they formed a receiving line to greet the friendly Hornets.

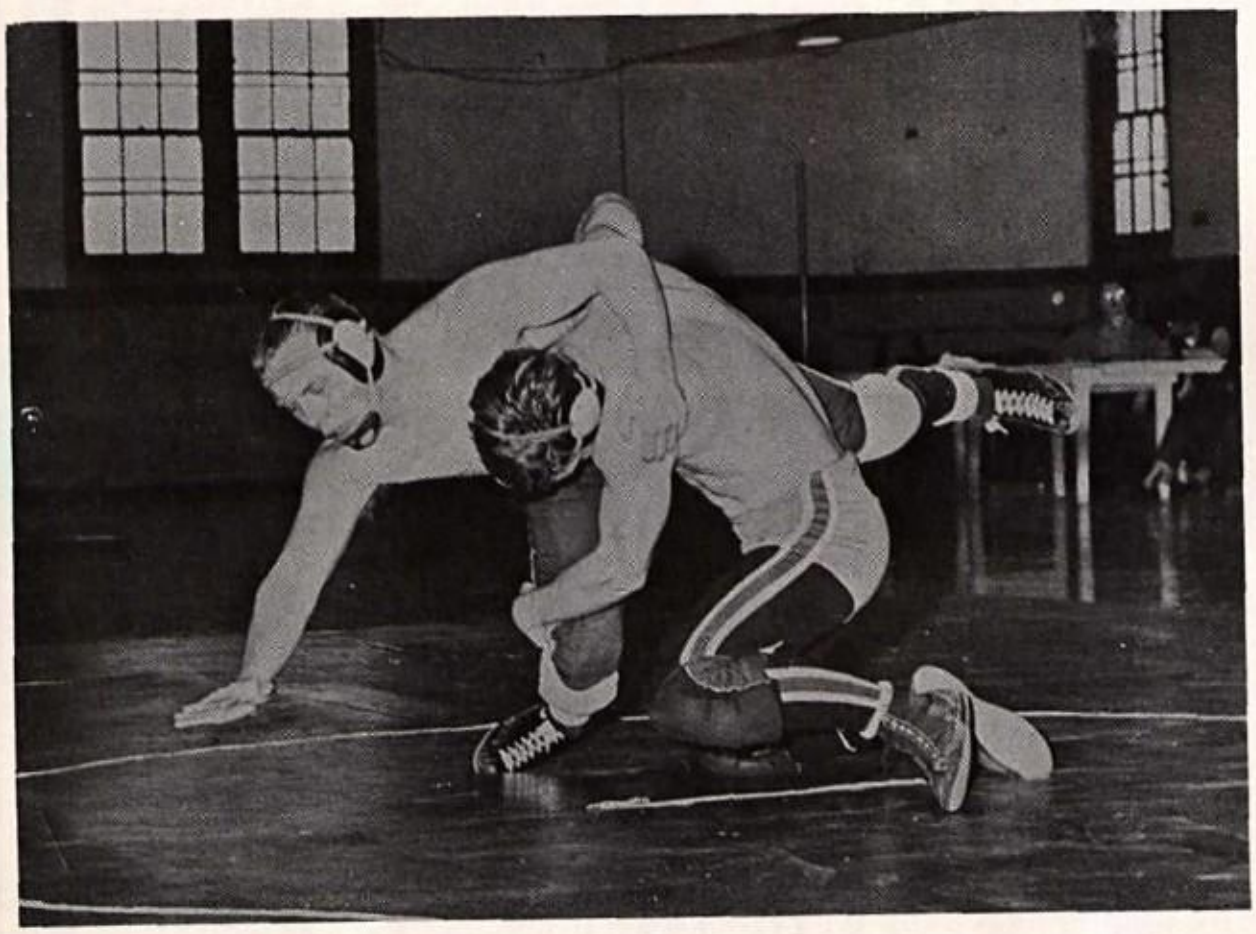
WINTER

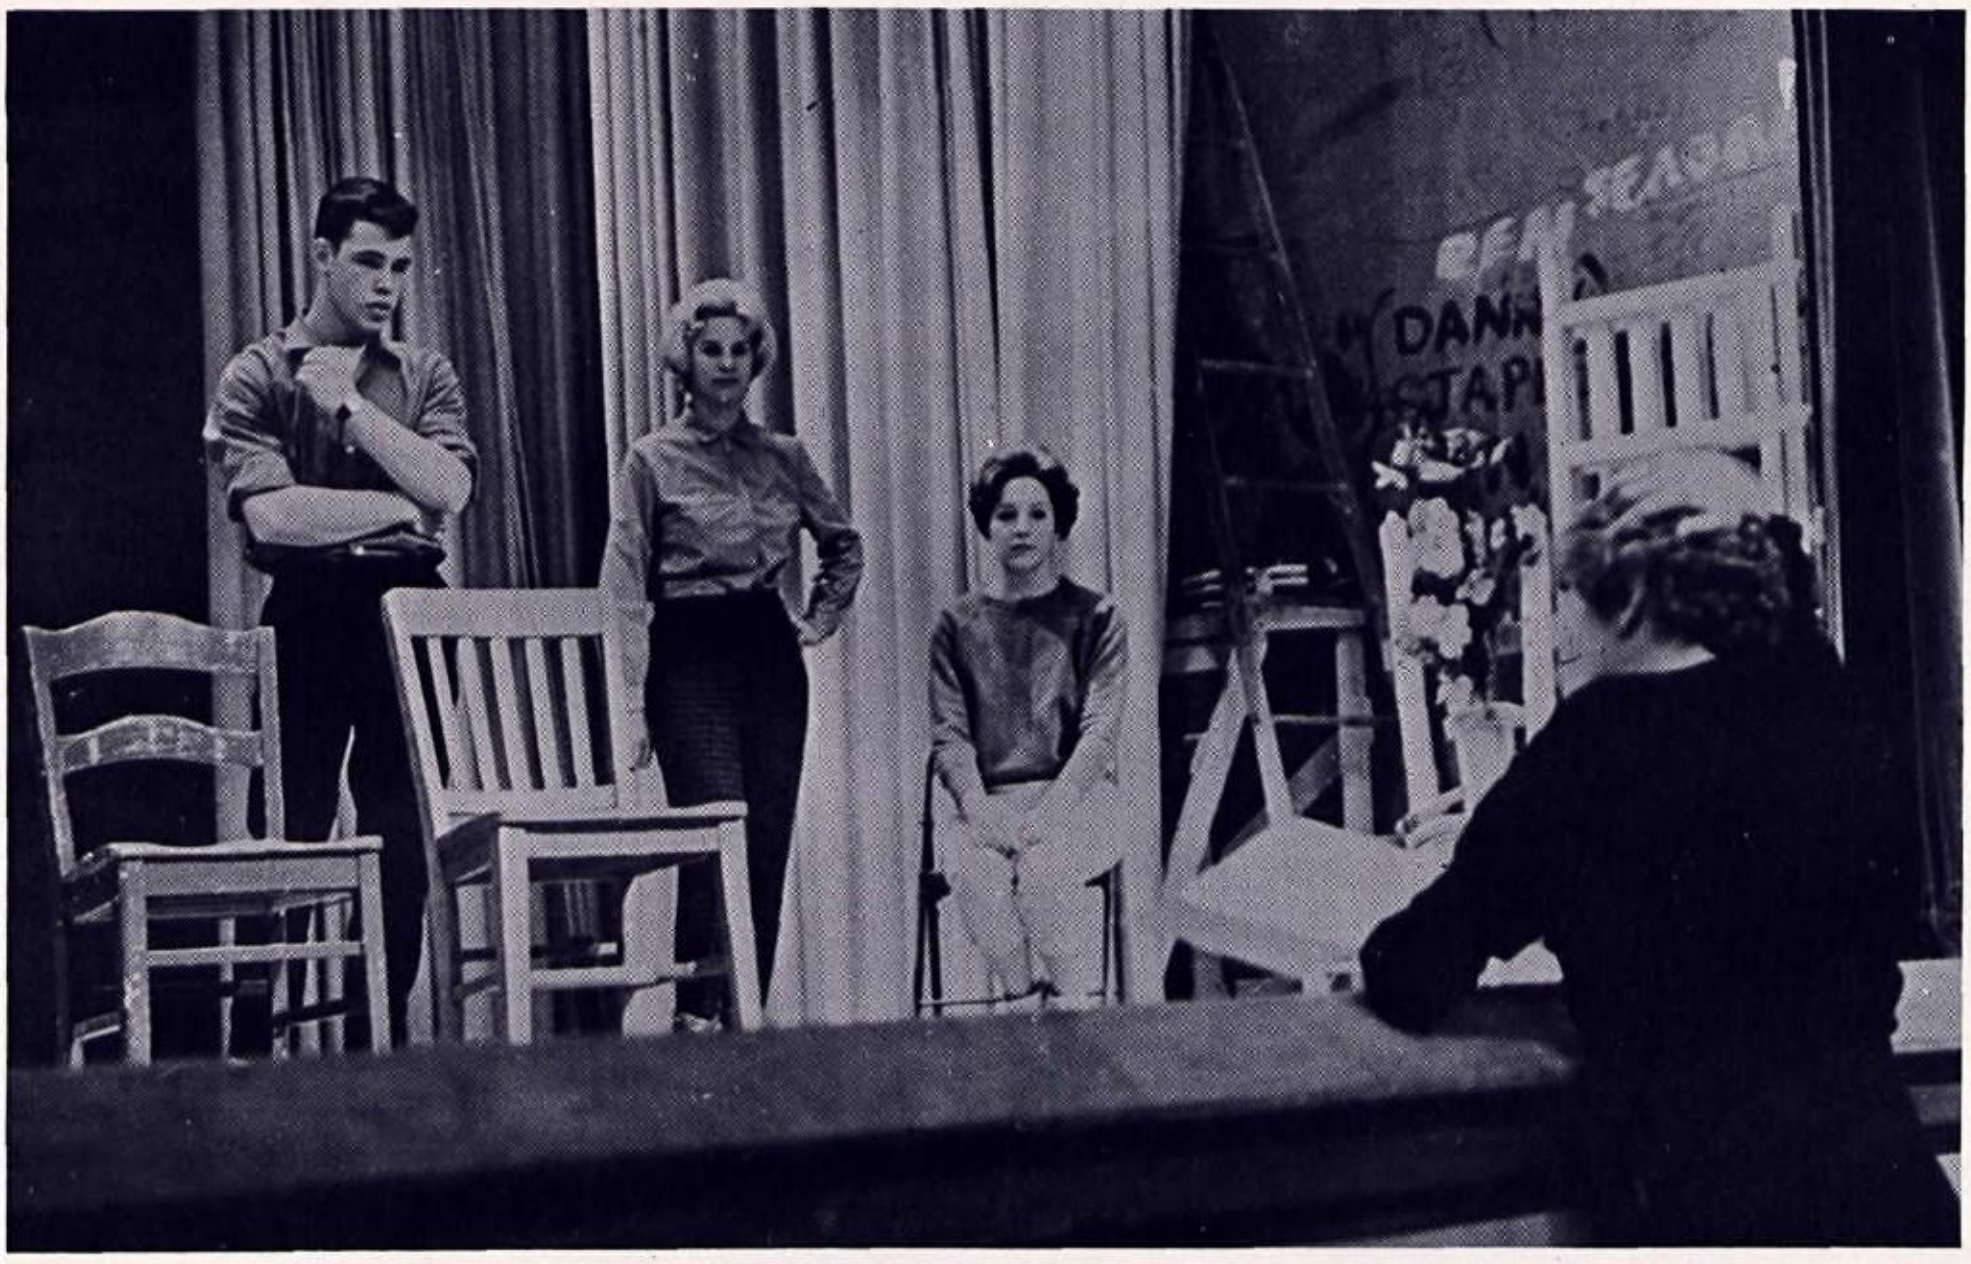
The arctic winds of winter blew in with an icy blast dumping barrels of snow on Northtown. . . . brave Hornets ventured forth equipped with galoshes, scarves, and in many cases, snowballs, to slip and slide to their classes at Dagg and Norclay . . .

Purgold staff members began an almost all-night task of turning the fieldhouse into a glow of red, white, and gold decorations as they prepared for the 10th annual Coronation Ball and were happily rewarded with 500 brave students who came out on a snowy eve to dance to the music of George TiDona and his orchestra and to see Maggie Long capture the honor of Purgold Queen . . .

MIKE

Winter saw the Hornets undertake many projects . . . The Student Council sponsored a leadership committee . . . assemblies were given by different departments . . . tense moments were provided by the members of the basketball teams . . . some Hornets even found time for homework!





Club programs provided many interesting and often amusing activities . . . the wrestling team won new trophies for the showcase . . . drama students returned from Christmas vacation to prepare for their production of "A Roomful of Roses" . . . the '61-'62 school year was passing quickly.

Juniors

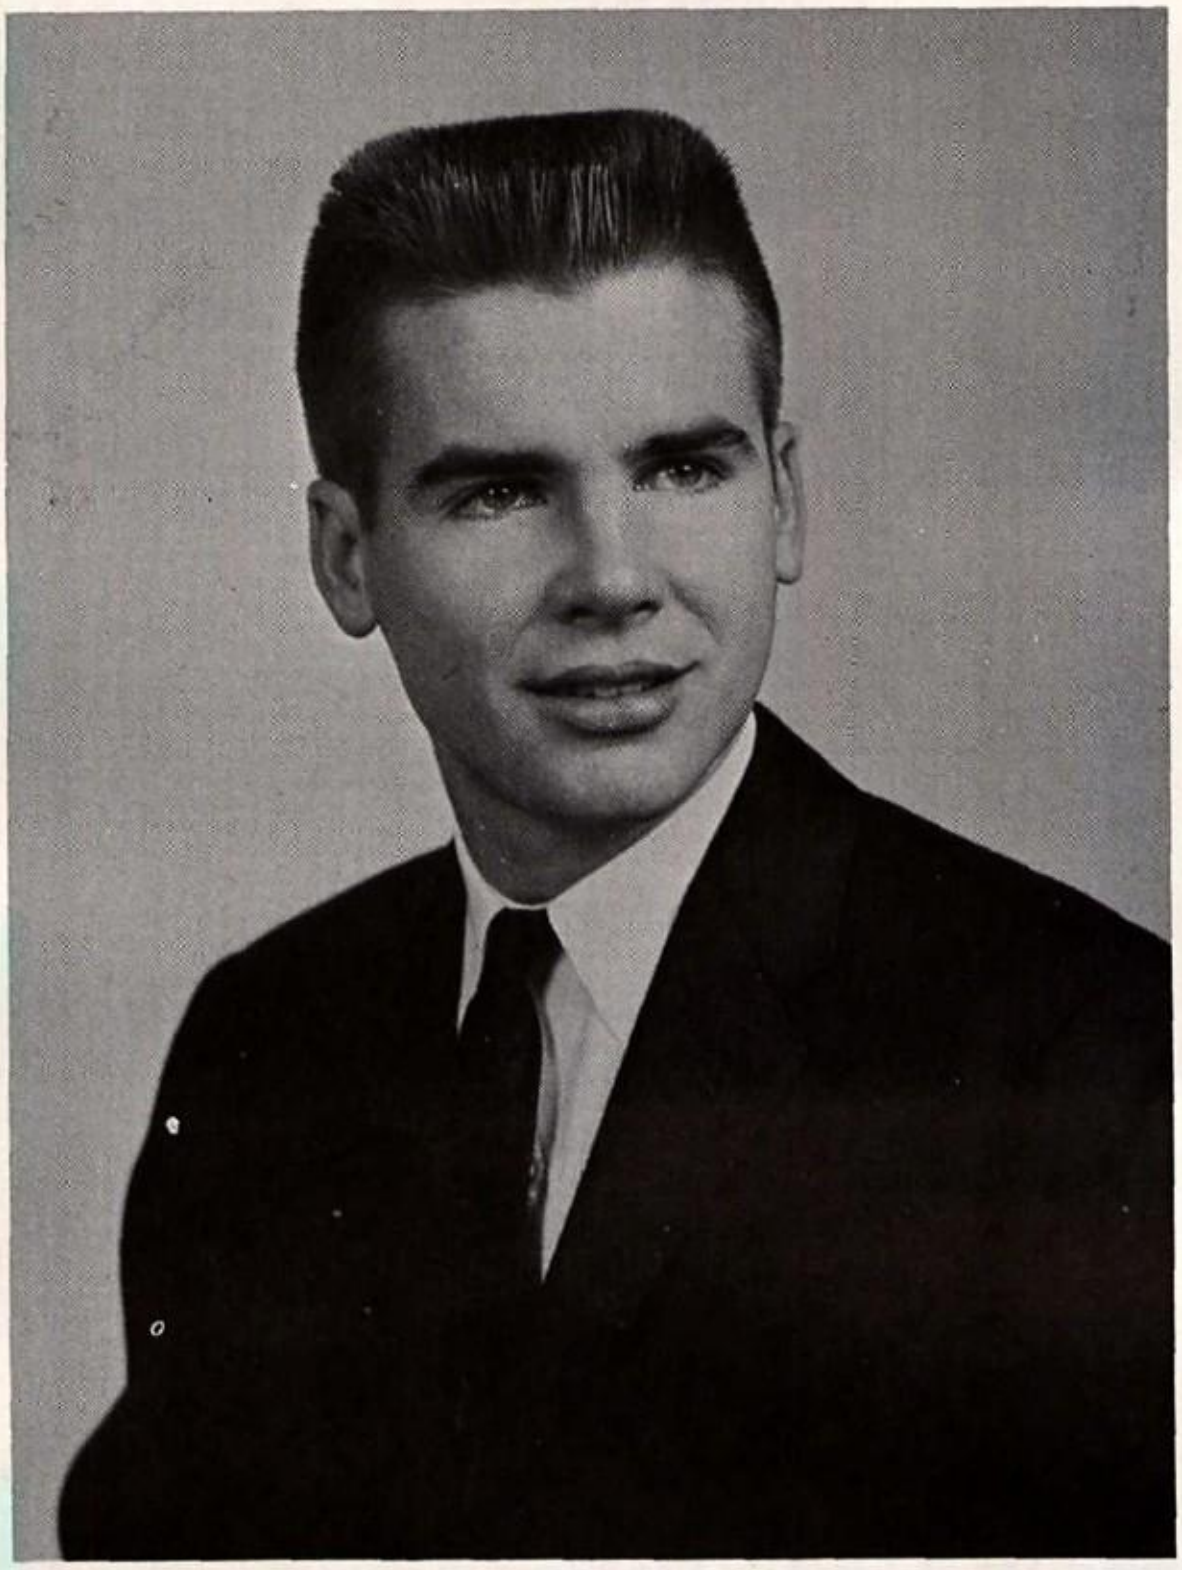
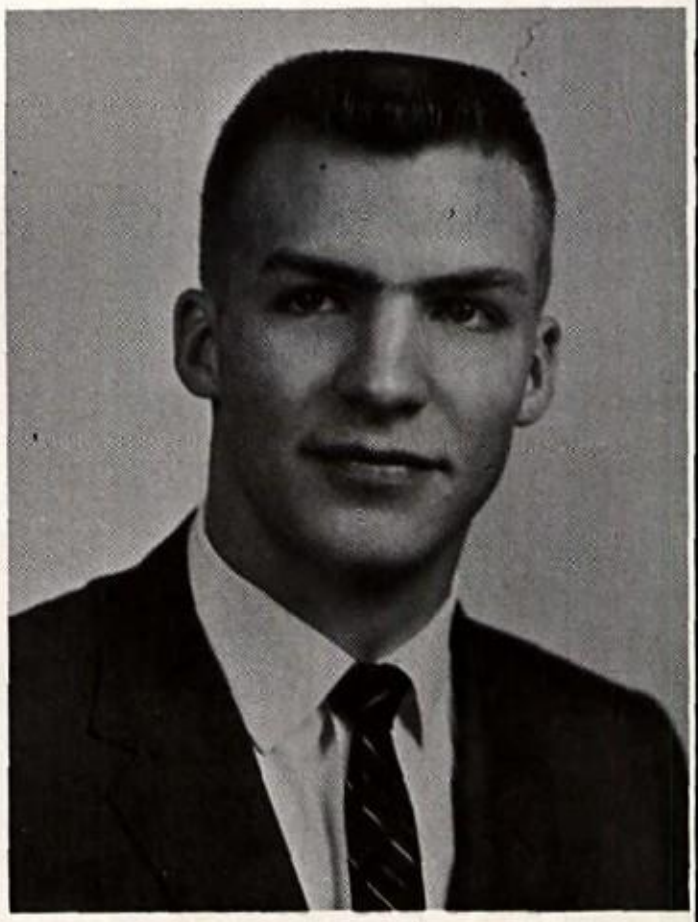
ORGANIZATIONS

Student Council



President, Chuck Bishop



Vice-President, Jon Hayes

The officers of Student Council were Chuck Bishop, President; Jon Hayes, Vice-President; Marilyn Mark, Secretary; Larry Schmidt, Treasurer; and Mert McCann, Sergeant-at-Arms. Mr. Pfaff sponsored the group.

Student Council has improved its effectiveness this year through a plan originated by member Scott Serrill. Every other Wednesday the school has been on Pep Assembly schedule. During the time alloted for the assembly, Student Council members have reported to two classes concerning the business that was discussed at the meeting held during the day. This plan has enabled the students to have direct contact with their representatives which gives them an actual voice in their government. Raising money for foreign exchange students, sponsoring a Junior Rotarian each month, and holding a leadership training session for all club officers have been just a few of the many projects of Student Council the past year.

Student Council in action

Pep Club

Pep Club officers were as follows: Grace Gleason, President; Celia Thompson, Vice-President; Pam Henry, Secretary; Lauree Sails, Treasurer; Marcia Cobb, Historian; Martye Underwood, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Miss Thies, Miss Heisey, Miss Lynde and Mrs. Smith, sponsors.

Pep Club promotes interest in school sports by requiring all 288 members to attend home games and decorate bulletin boards at assigned times. Varsity and B-team cheerleaders also add to the spirit with their appropriate cheers. The football and basketball banquets were sponsored by the Pep Club. They also have an annual banquet at the end of each year when they install their officers for the following year. Pep Club members are expected to keep acceptable scholastic and conduct grades.

An important duty of the members is to decorate the bulletin boards.

On Dad's Night girls served refreshments.

Modern Music Masters

Ronnie Anderson, President; Dick Dinkins, Vice-President; Dale Delap, Secretary; and Don Enloe, Treasurer, were the officers. Mr. Bogosian and Mr. Clouse sponsored the club.

Stimulating interest in vocal and instrumental music is the aim of Modern Music Masters, a national organization represented in this school by 104 members. In order to acquire membership, one must be enrolled in a music course and pass an examination which includes a performance before the members of MMM.

Ronnie Anderson conducts business.

Y-Teens

Devotionals were an important part of Y-Teens meetings.

Barbara Boucher modeled at the fashion show.

Growing as a person; growing in friendship with all races, creeds, and nationalities; and growing in knowledge and love of God are the aims of Y-Teens. This group sponsors services during the World Week of Prayer and the week before Easter. Other projects are the Buzz Book, a fashion show, the annual Sweetheart Ball, and the Variety Show.

Heading the organization were Nancy Whitlow, President; Francey McClelland, Vice-President; Jean Burcham, Secretary; Lonnie McCandless, Treasurer; and Barbara Hill, Historian.

Hi-Y

The officers of Senior Hi-Y were Scott Serrill, President; Jim Andrews, Vice-President; Tom Taylor, Treasurer; Rusty Stout, Secretary; Jerry Oberlag, Chaplin; and Frank Lambert, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The purpose of Hi-Y is to extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character. The North Kansas City juniors and seniors who formed a Hi-Y club this year discovered the fun that comes from helping others. Hi-Y is sponsored by the YMCA, a world-wide organization united by the common purpose of building character in a Christian society.

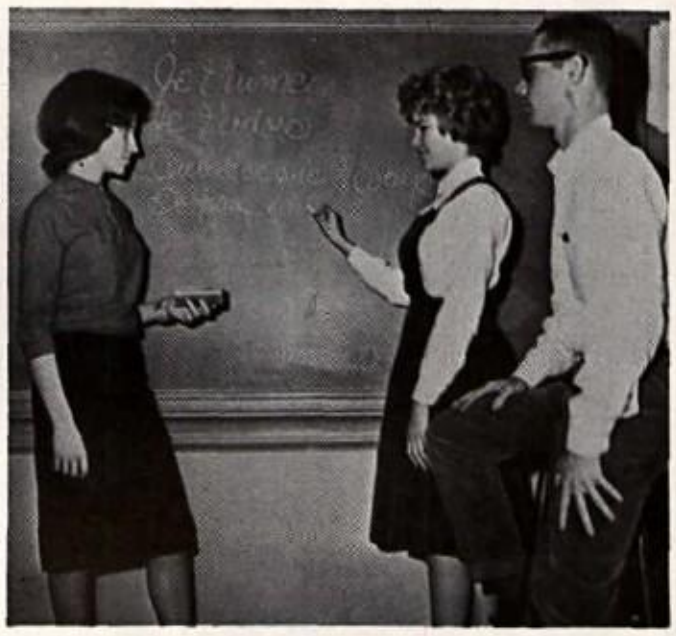
Hi-Y Junior officers were Larry Palmer, President; Joel Swearingen, Vice-President; J. R. Smith, Secretary; Ray Fightmaster, Treasurer; and Mike Muller, Chaplain.

The democratic process in practice.

French Club's initiation was a solemn occasion.

French Club

The French Club of North Kansas City High School serves to familiarize its members with the language, customs, songs, and history of France. This year's activities included a Christmas-caroling party, and a French play as well as the Mardi Gras dance.



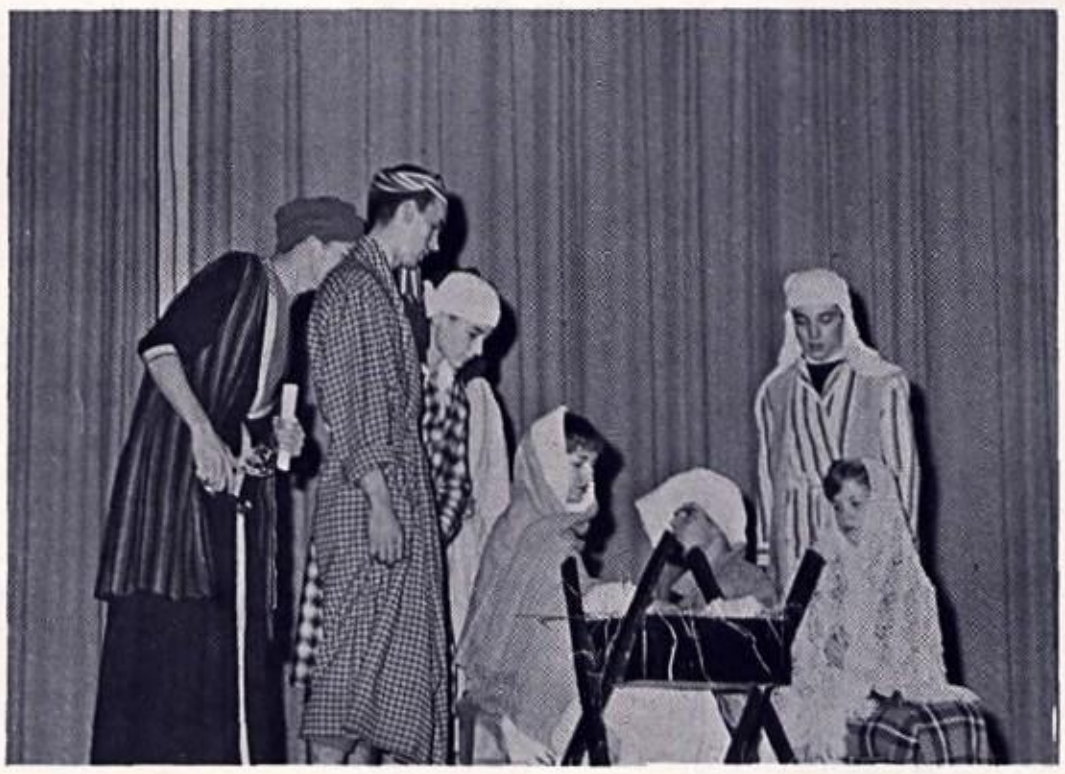
Lauree Sails, President; Donna Drews, Vice-President; Barbara Blankley, Secretary; Jerry Oberlag, Treasurer; Miss Outs and Mrs. Moore, sponsors, led French Club.

French anagrams proved to be a challenge.

Los Interamericanos

Los Interamericanos, the Spanish club at North Kansas City High School, tries to promote understanding of Spanish-speaking peoples and their customs. This is done by celebrating many of the Spanish festivals and holidays and by inviting speakers to discuss the customs of their country. Highlights of the year were a pinata at Christmas, a trip to a Spanish movie, and lessons in Spanish folk dances.

Miss Isley helped guide the officers who were Steve Guthrie, President; Barbara Meyer, Vice-President; Jan Seelinger, Secretary; Janet Buckley, Treasurer; Anita Eagle, Parliamentarian; Don Enloe, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Nancy Whitlow, Historian.



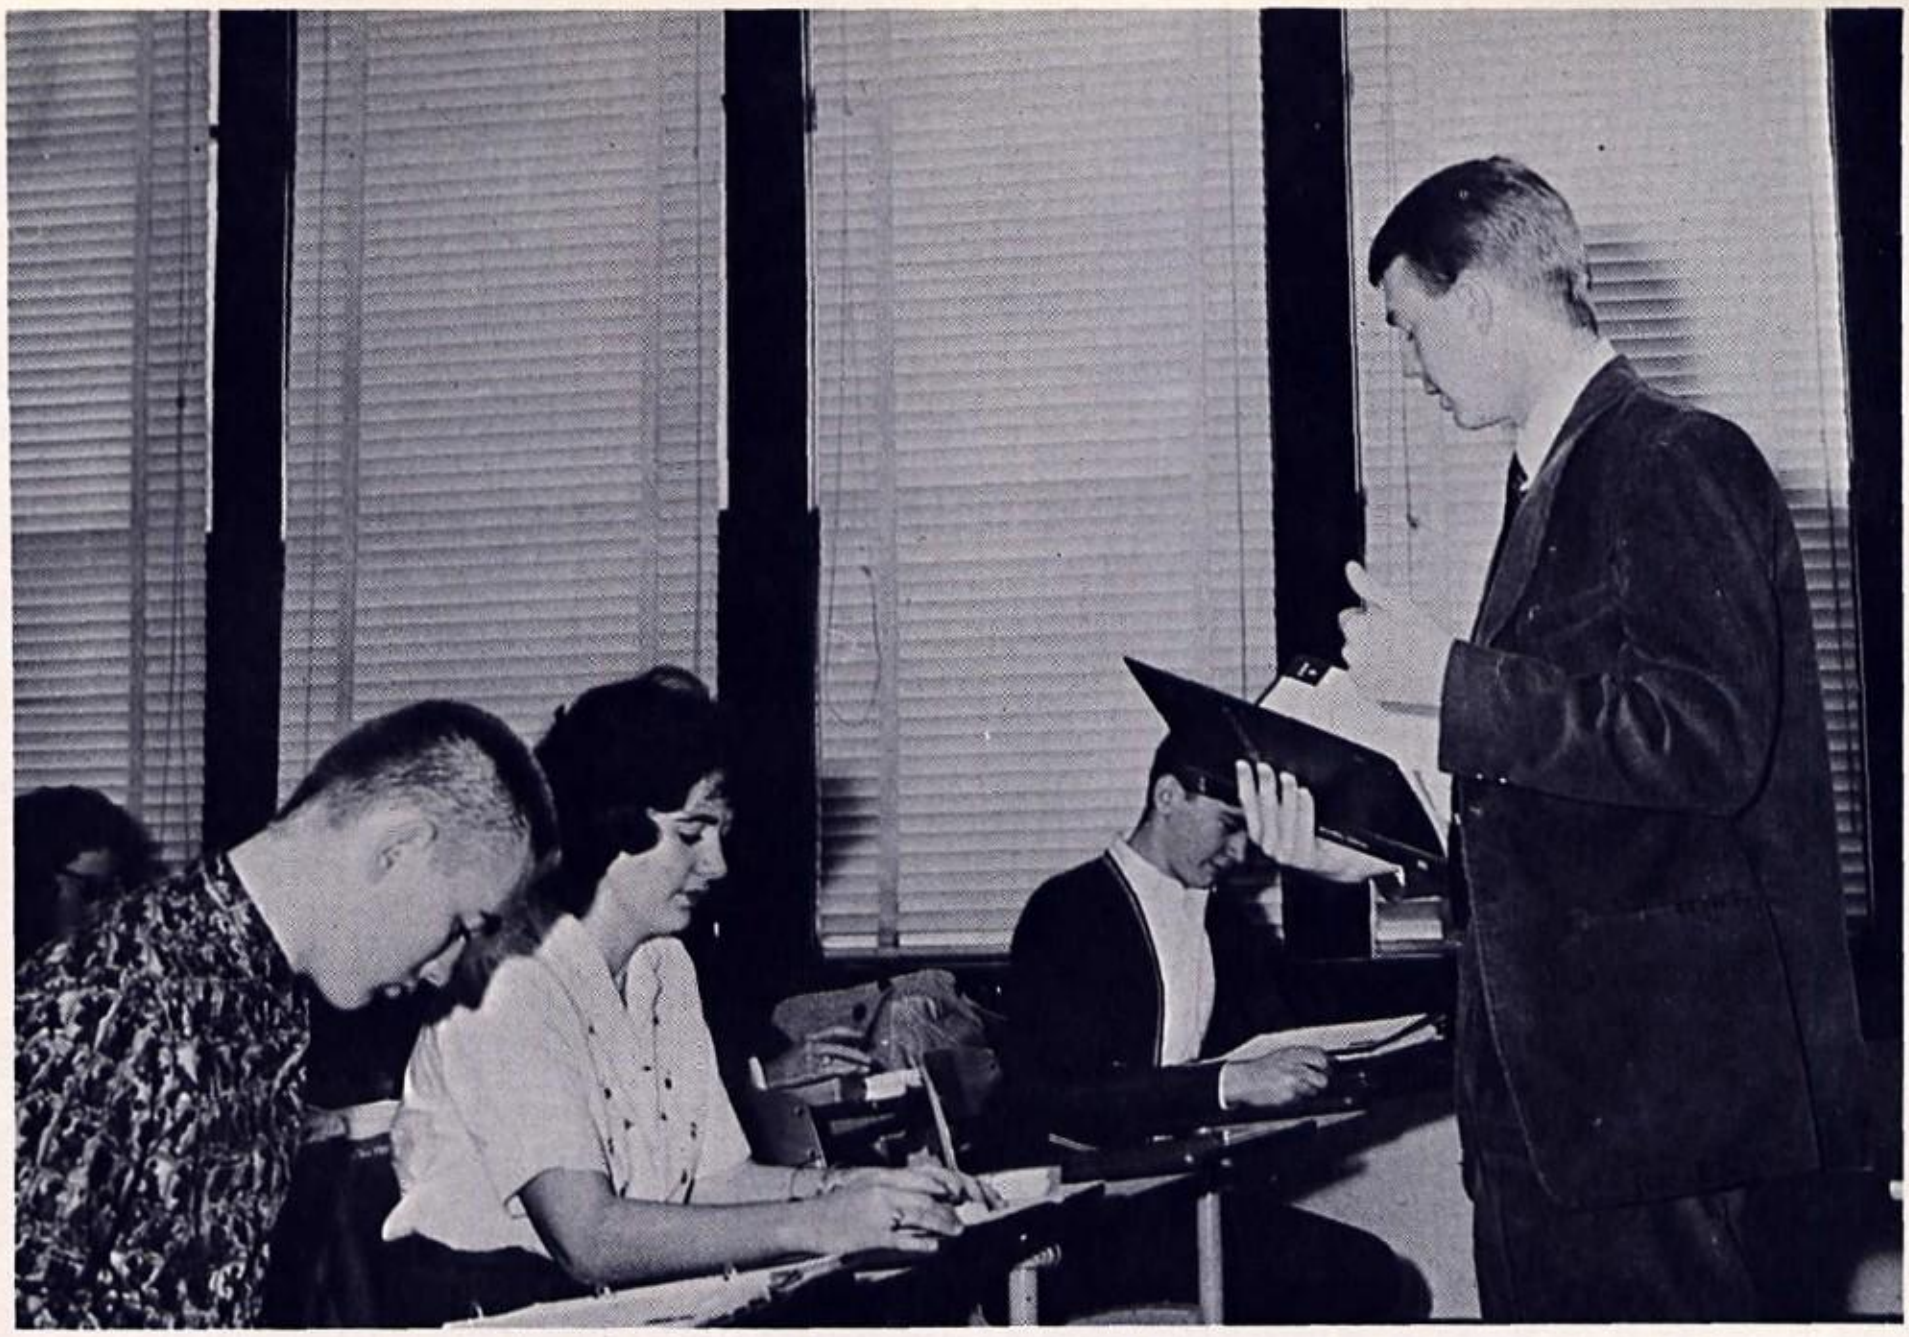
An inspirational play highlighted the Christmas season.

German Club

German Club was led by Wilby Cox, President; Bruce Simon, Vice-President; Robin Crain, Secretary-Treasurer; and David Spencer, Sergeant-at-Arms. The sponsor was Mr. Henderson.

To promote understanding of the German culture and language, German Club has seen films and heard a lecture from a member of the German consulate. Another highlight has been the showing of Mr. Henderson's slides of Germany.

Members devote their attention to their president.



Russian Sector

Highlights of the year for Russian Sector, one of Northtown's newest clubs, have been a speech by a United Nations representative and the opportunity to taste different Russian foods.

The officers were Steve Rhodes, President; John Evans, Vice President; Nancy Joffee, Secretary; and Ronnie Rhodefer, Sergeant at Arms.

National Thespian Society

The National Thespian Society is an organization to further students' participation in dramatics and their appreciation of the world of drama. To become a member, it is necessary to earn fifteen points by taking part in some phase of dramatics. This year the main project sponsored by Thespians was the production of two plays which were presented for grade-school children.

The year's officers were Nancy Joffee, President; Mallory Keener, Vice-President; Lauree Sails, Secretary; Julie England, Treasurer; Lynn Tschirner, clerk; and Miss Fulton, sponsor.

National Forensic League

To encourage and promote speech activities and to develop leadership are the purposes of National Forensic League. To join this club, it is necessary to accumulate a minimum of 25 points. These points are earned at speech and debate tournaments held throughout the Missouri and Kansas area.

The leaders were Lynn Hogue, President; Robert Dahlbo, Vice-President; and Carol Rowland, Secretary. The organization was sponsored by Miss Hale.

Terry Mattke, President; Larry Schmidt, Vice-President; Larry Denning, Secretary-Treasurer; Scott Serrill, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Mr. Broomfield, Sponsor, led the organization.

Political Science

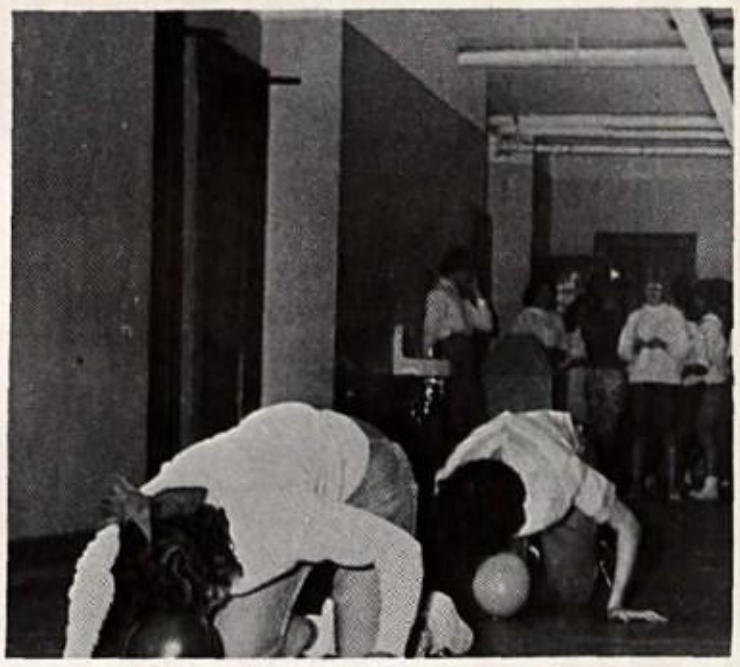
One of North Kansas City's newest clubs, Political Science, is sponsored by Mr. Charles Broomfield. This club provides a chance for each individual to contribute both to his school and his future by gaining greater insight of the forces controlling the civilization which engulfs us. Prominent political figures, such as James Trimble, majority leader in the Missouri House of Representatives, have spoken to the club.

Organizing the club was a big job.

Leaders of the organization were Carol Brewer, President; Mary O'Brien, Vice-President; Linda Steimkamp, Secretary; Mary Ellen Jones, Treasurer; Sharon Johnston, Publicity; Lora Hill, Historian; Mary Phillips, Reporter; and Miss Collings and Mrs. Garner, Sponsors.

Future Homemakers of America

Whether a girl wants a career in Home Economics or is planning to become a homemaker herself, Future Homemakers of America provides many opportunities to hear informative speakers and visit interesting places. At one meeting the girls heard a lecture on Civil Defense, while at another a representative of the Gas Service Company demonstrated how to use a gas stove by cooking a full meal on it. Another program was a trip to the TWA commissary, to learn about food preparation for air travel.



Initiation held many surprises.

Committee meeting.

Mrs. Beigel, sponsor, helped guide the officers who were Marcia Cobb, President; Jean Burcham, Vice-President; Margo Cannom, Secretary; Phyllis Zuck, Treasurer; and Suzy Minnick, Historian.

Future Nurses' Club

Future Nurses Club helps develop interest in medical professions through programs such as touring hospitals, seeing films, and having informative speakers. Their Christmas project was sending a collection to Project Hope. Members can acquire practical experience by serving as volunteers at the North Kansas City Memorial Hospital.

Members learn how to make a bed the proper way.

A dainty chess board for dainty players.

Chess Club

The purpose of Chess Club is to give students an opportunity to play chess and to provide instruction for those interested. This is an unusual club in that it has no officers, dues, or rules.

The sponsor, Mr. Little, concentrates on his next move.

On a tour of KCMO, Chuck Davis points out interesting features of the studio.

Radio Club

The purpose of Radio Club is to promote interest in amateur radio and to obtain novice licenses for as many members as possible. Financing the purchase of a new antenna was one of the club's main projects.

Heading Radio Club were Kirby Pappan, President; Tom Bishop, Vice-President; and Cindy Wheeler, Secretary-Treasurer with Mr. Galatas and Mr. Cramer as sponsors.

Future Business Leaders Of America

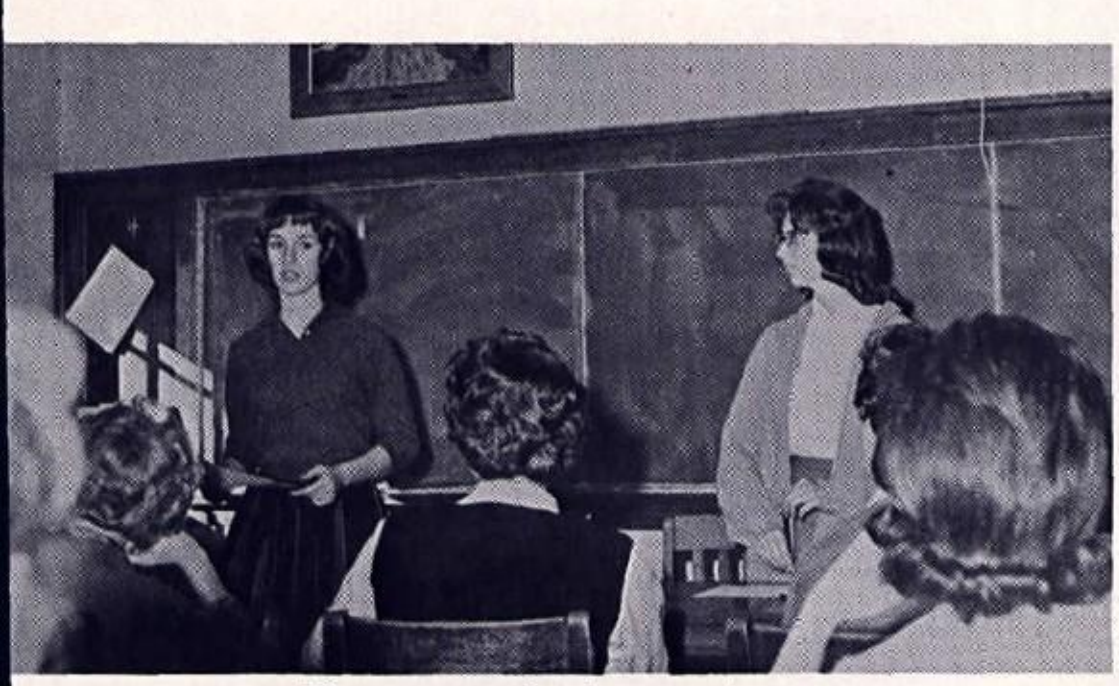
Members listen intently to a speaker.

The aim of Future Business Leaders of America is to promote understanding of occupations in the business world. Projects of the group included sponsoring the NOMA spelling and arithmetic tests, handling the registration of guests at the annual Open House, and sending candy to the Odd Fellows on Valentine's Day.

The officers were as follows: Merle Ann Zinn, President; Maurine Davis, Vice-President; Barbara Bates, Secretary; Paul Hamersen, first semester Treasurer; Eric Swenson, second semester Treasurer; Linda Boustead, Reporter; and Miss King, sponsor.

Future Teachers of America

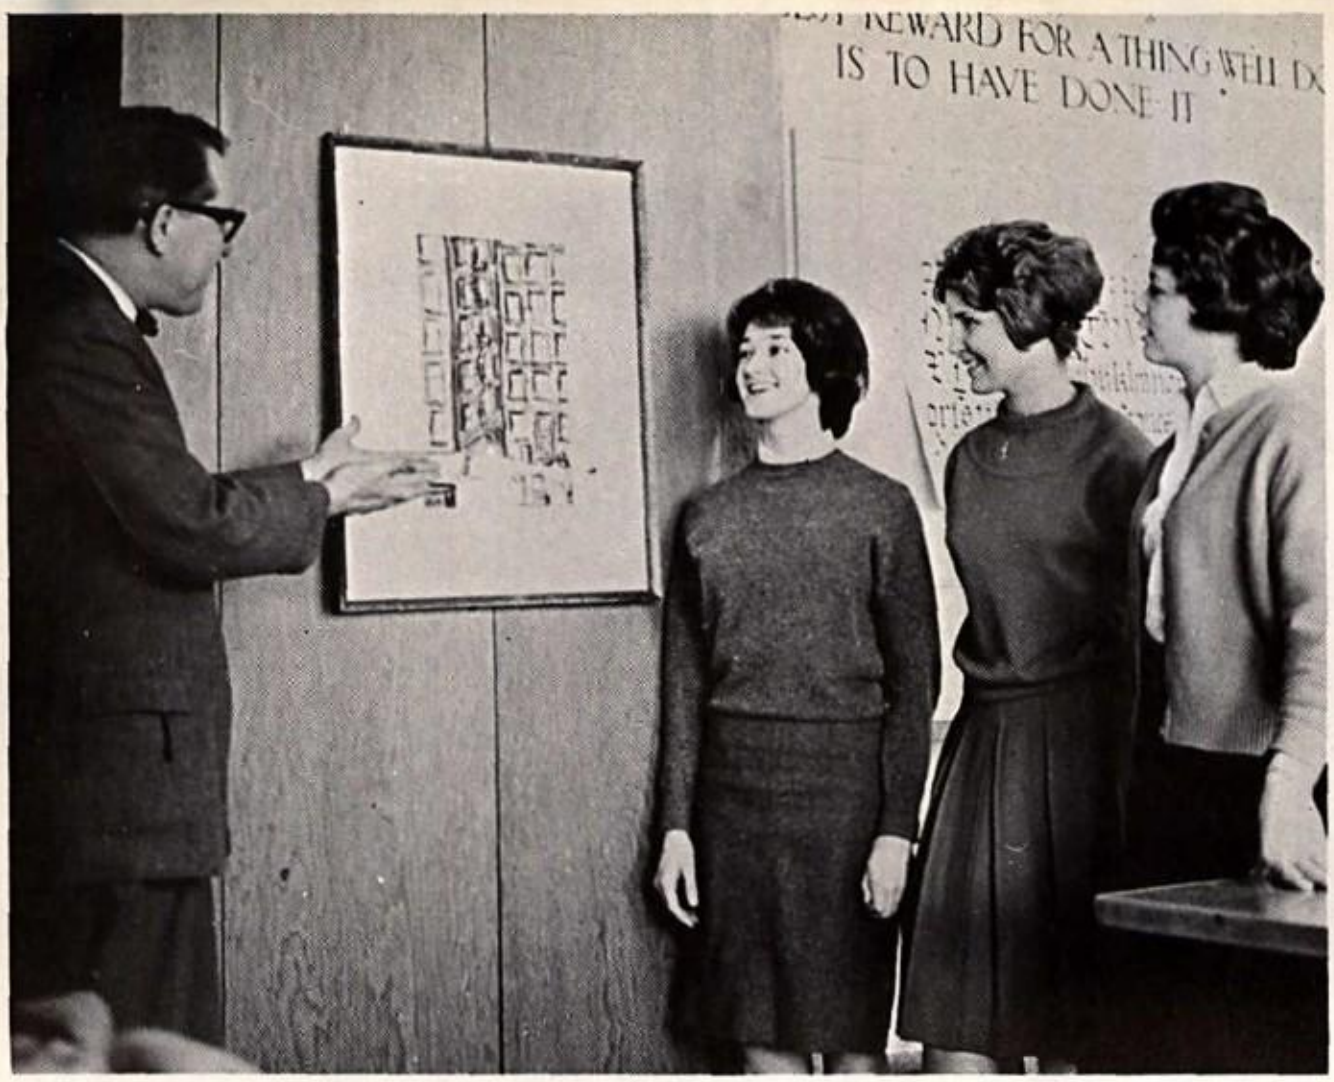
Michelle Stitt, President; Celia Thompson, Vice-President; Barbara Barnes, Secretary; Jim Cannon, Treasurer; and Mallory Keener, Reporter; worked with Miss McClintock and Mrs. Shields, the sponsors.



The secretary gives her report.

Adopting a family at Thanksgiving, acting as hosts at College Night, and attending the CTA banquet were some of the activities which Future Teachers carried out this year to further their purpose of serving the community. They also heard teachers from all levels of education speak about the particular problems and rewards of their grade levels. A highlight of the year was a pizza party, which was held at one of the member's home.

A university teacher tells about her work.



Art Club

The officers were Barbara Scoville, President; Dennis Becker, Vice-President; Jeanie Fischel, Secretary; and Kathy Kavisic, Treasurer. Mr. Price was the sponsor.

Highlights of the year for Art Apprentices have been a field trip to the Art Institute, a demonstration in clay by Mr. Price, and an open discussion about careers in art. The main project of the year was an exhibition held in the spring.

The officers were Jerry Livingston, President; Rusty Stout, Vice-President; Pam Henry, Secretary; Larry Schmidt, Treasurer; and Miss Barnett, Sponsor.

National Honor Society

Being a member of National Honor Society is one of the highest honors which can be bestowed upon a senior. Because of his qualities of scholarship, character, leadership, and service a person can become eligible for membership.

Each member received a yellow rose at the recognition ceremony.

N Club

N Club sponsor, Mr. Cottingham, talks with members.

Collecting money for the needy at Christmas was an important project.

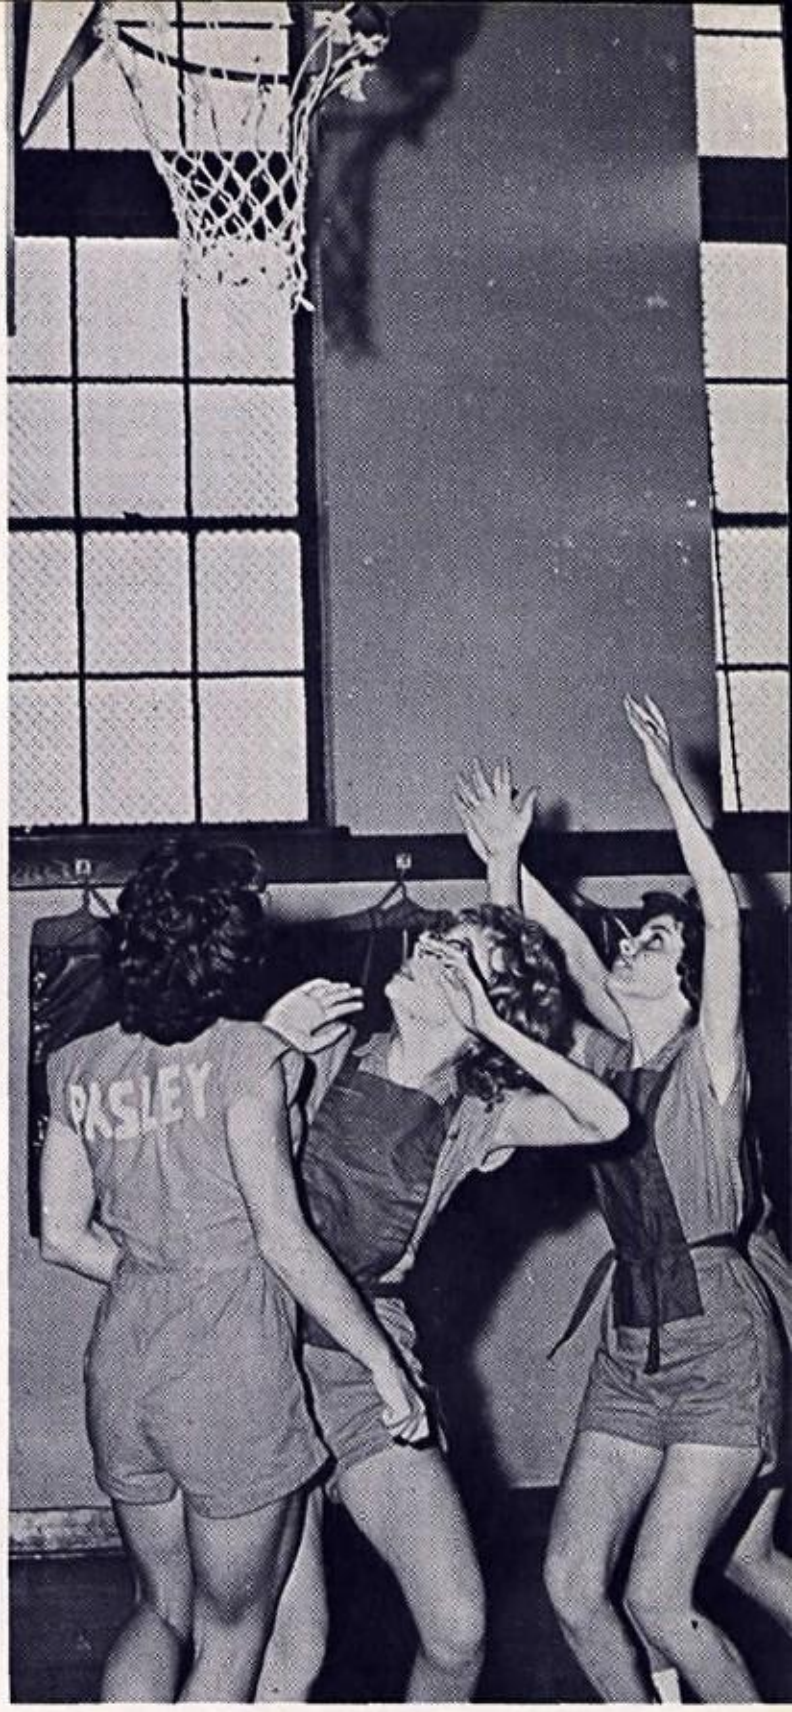
Serving the school and community, N Club is made up of athletes who have lettered in one or more sports. In addition to handling tickets at the football and basketball games, N Club sponsors needy families at Christmas.

Heading the group were Frank Jones, President; Larry Schmidt, Vice-President; David Zieg, Secretary-Treasurer; and Elmer McCall, Sergeant-at-Arms.

Girls' Athletic Association

The year's officers were Lauree Sails, President; Jean Burcham, Vice-President; Shirley Herbold, Secretary; Mary Ellen Jones, Treasurer; Connie Linder, Sports Manager; Joyce Herbold, Historian; Diana Betterton, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Miss Heisey, Sponsor.

GAA is a club for those girls interested in sports. They sponsor girls' intramurals after school and an annual play-day for the junior highs. To join the club, it is necessary to have participated in four after-school sports, such as hockey, basketball, volleyball, and softball. At Christmas time a party was held for all the members.



Basketball was one of the most popular sports.

New members light their candles at initiation.

Buzz Staff

What goes on in the school? It's all in the Hornet's Buzz, the official school paper published every two weeks by the Journalism Class. For the first time, Buzz staff has not only written the stories for the paper but has set up the final page lay-outs also. This year's group also switched from linotype printing to lino-film. The Buzz is the only high school paper using this better process.

Purgold Staff

The 1962 Purgold Staff, composed of eighteen seniors, handled a record-breaking order of over 2,000 yearbooks. Their specific duties included such things as writing copy, designing lay-outs, and identifying pictures. The annual sales campaign, which lasted two weeks, was climaxed by the Coronation Ball, December 9, at which time the girl selling the most Purgolds was crowned queen. Another project was a trip to Marceline, Missouri, where the staff toured the publishing company. Also making the trip were the 1963 staff members.

"At this time, I crown the 1962 Purgold Queen, Miss Maggie Long!" With these words, Scott Serrill placed the coveted crown on the smiling queen's head. Maggie, wearing green satin and holding a dozen long-stemmed red roses, was escorted by her campaign manager, Jim Andrews.

With a bashful smile, Miss Barbara Scoville was crowned Purgold Princess. Barbara, wearing a light blue brocade dress, was accompanied by Larry Schmidt.

Christmas Assembly

Assemblies

Ann-Cathrine Carlsson started a tradition this year by presenting North Kansas City High School with a flag of Sweden at the Christmas assembly. At the basketball assembly, the Hornets learned the rules and techniques of basketball.

GAME SUMMARIES

Lee's Summit--The North Kansas City Hornets opened the 61-62 season with a loss to the Lee's Summit Tigers. The game was played in typical "first game" style, with both teams making many mechanical errors. Jon Hayes ripped the cords for 12 points, followed by Wayne Hauschild with 9. The final score was 43-36.

DeLa Salle-- The Hornets obtained their first win, with a 40-37 victory over the Titans from DeLa Salle. Behind at the end of the third quarter, the Hornets roared back with the accuracy of Jon Hayes at the free throw line. Jon was also high scorer in the game with 12 points.

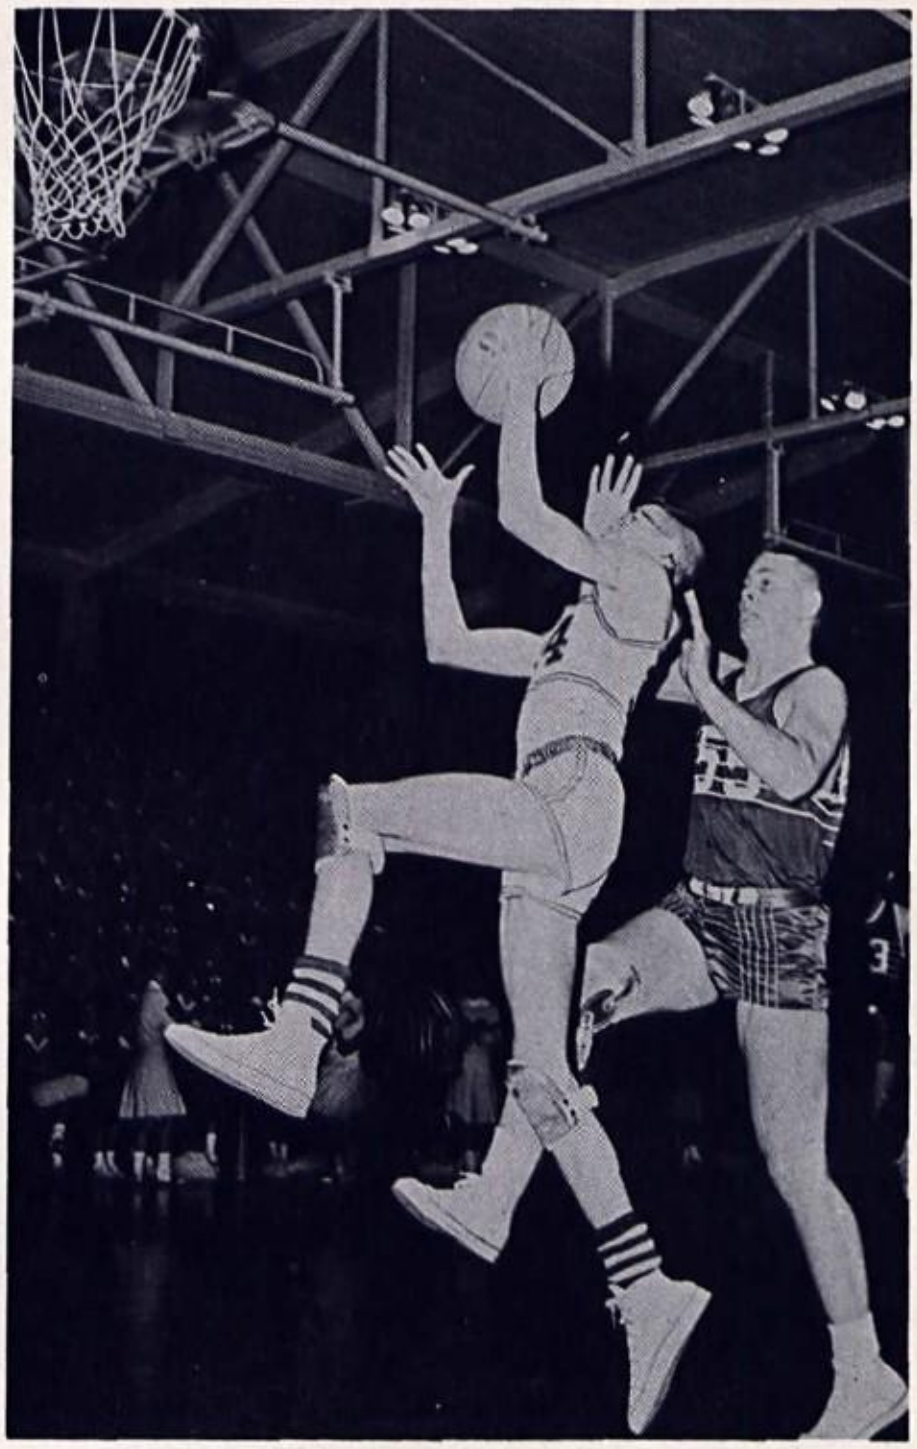
Shawnee Mission North--The Shawnee-North Indians played host to the Hornets on their home court. The Indians were not very hospitable, though, for they won the contest 64-48. The Hornets stayed with Shawnee-North until the last quarter when they were outscored 24-8. Steve Westfall scored 14 points for the losing Hornets.



Rusty Stout streaks in for a lay-up.

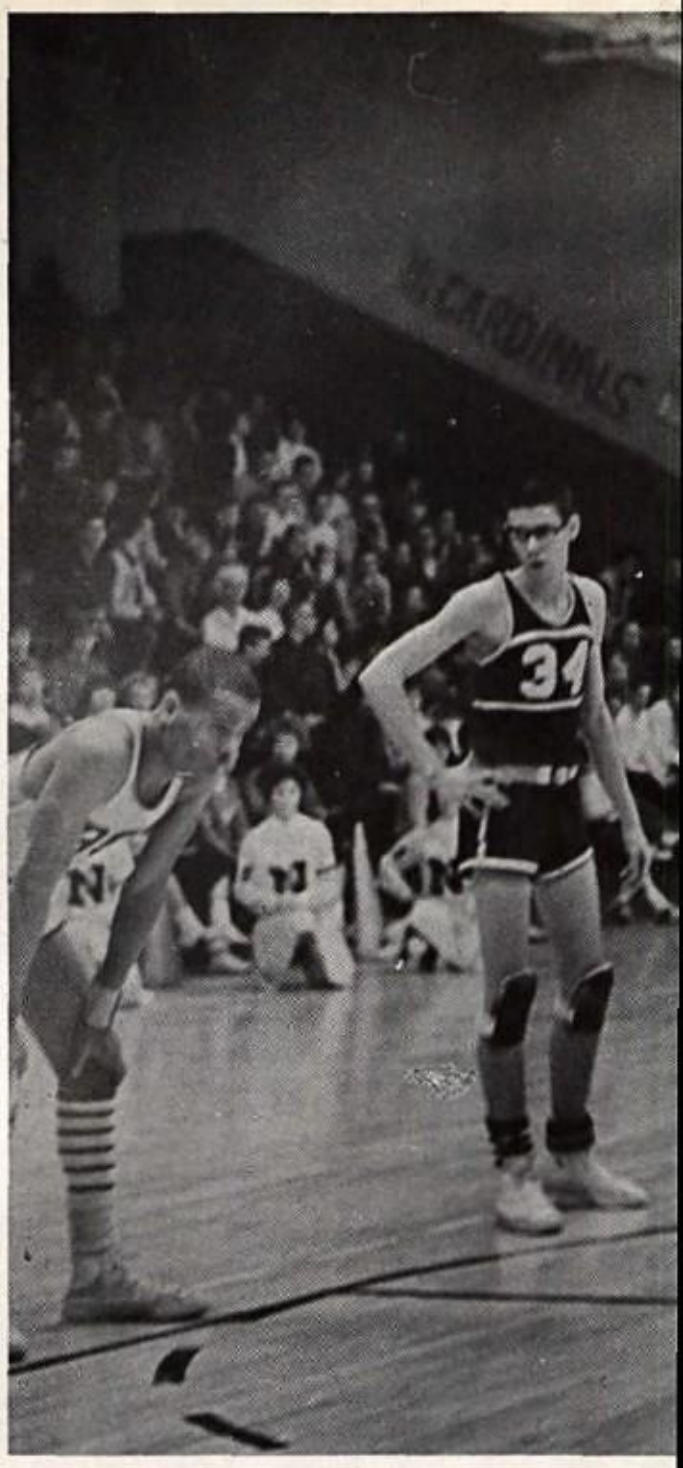
Rockhurst--Playing the host team in the Rockhurst Tournament, the Hornets lost their first game 49-41. Although N. K. C. was blistering hot in the last quarter, they were unable to make up the deficit. Wayne Hauschild and Jon Hayes were the outstanding Hornet players, both on offense and defense.

St. Joe Central--N. K. C. lost to their first conference foe, St. Joe Central, by a score of 59-51. The game was closely contested all the way and was marked by accurate shooting on the part of both teams. Jon Hayes scored 14 points and was also leading rebounder.

Pem-Day--The Hornets captured third place in the Rockhurst tourney by defeating Pem-Day 63-60. Rusty Stout was high scorer with 22 points followed by Jon Hayes who had 15.

Shawnee Mission East--Hitting only 14% of their attempts in the first half, the Hornets were unable to make up the difference and lost to the Lancers 59-37. Rusty Stout and Steve Westfall were the leading scorers of the game for North Kansas City.

Wayne Hauschild scrambles for a rebound.



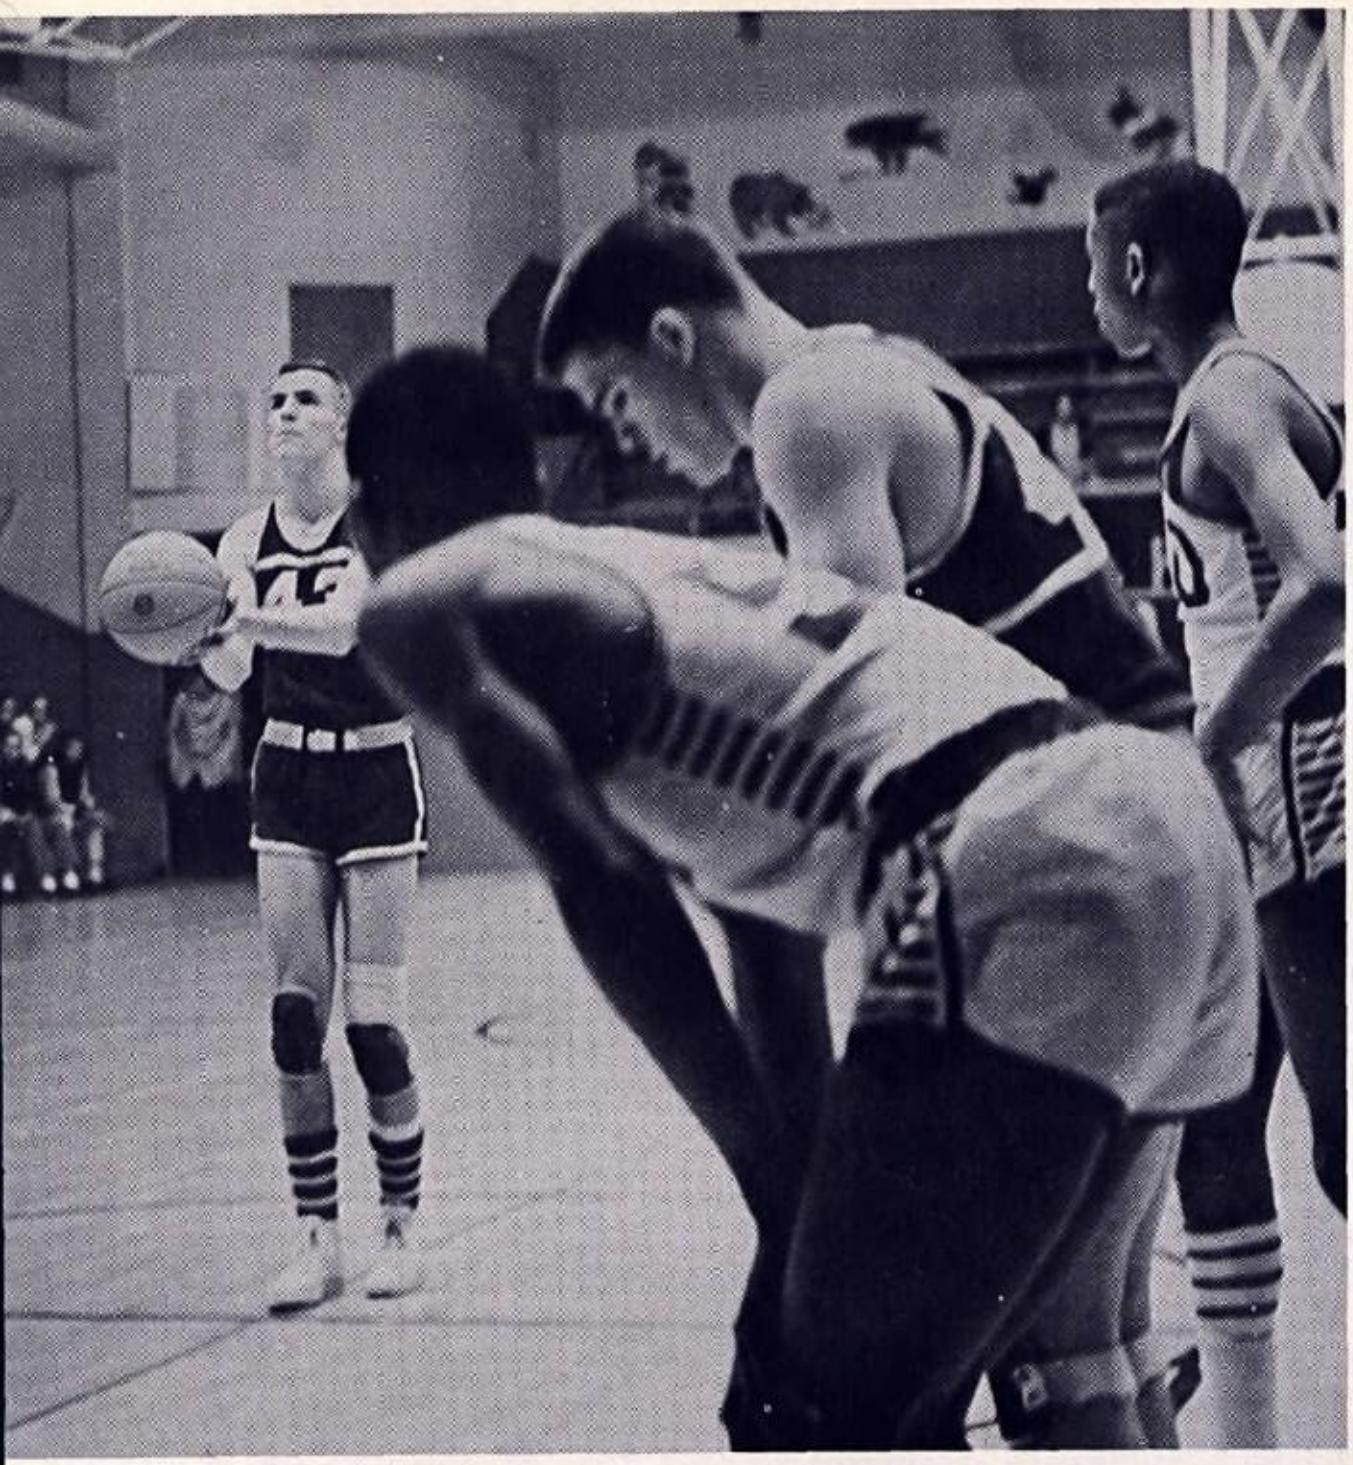
Lafayette--Lafayette fell victim to a strong zone defense, and an accurate Hornet shooting attack to lose 45-37. Down by four points at halftime, N. K. C. came back to outscore the Shamrocks 26-14. Rusty Stout again was high point man with 16 points; Steve Westfall scored 13 points.

Raytown--North Kansas City traveled to Raytown to lose a hard-fought, exciting contest. Raytown seemed never to cool off as they pumped in point after point. Rusty Stout kept the Hornets close with 19 points. The final score was Raytown 68, Northtown 49.

St. Joe Benton--Helped by the inaccuracy of the St. Joe Cardinals, the Hornets won another conference game by a score of 41-27. Each team started slowly with the half time score 18-4 in favor of N. K. C. Jon Hayes hauled in 17 rebounds and Rusty Stout scored 12 points.

Liberty--The Hornets rebounded after losing two in a row, by beating Liberty 60-47. The Hornets couldn't miss as they sank field goal after field goal. Rusty Stout was the Hornet star sinking 16 points.

St. Joe Benton--Plagued by inaccuracy from the field, the Hornets were beaten badly by the Benton Cardinals 52-34. Not until the fourth quarter did the Hornets warm up, but by then it was too late to dent Benton's lead.



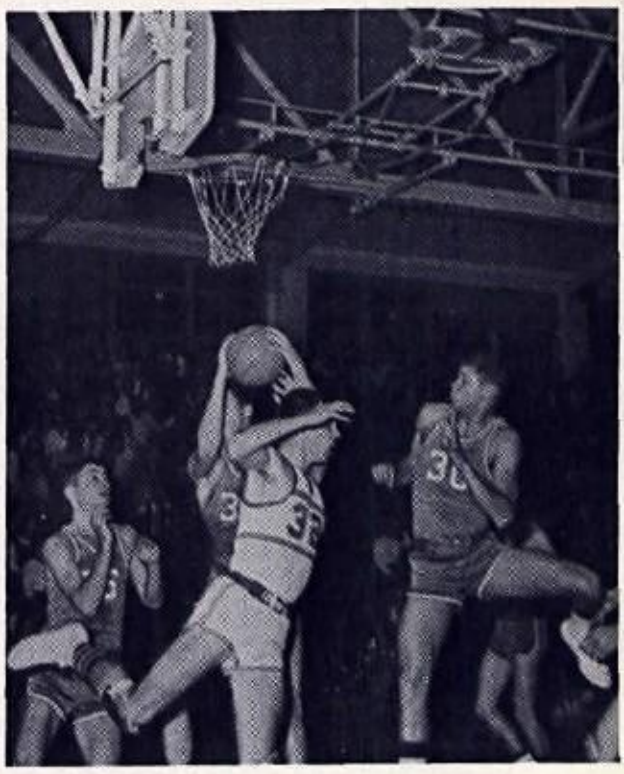
Tension mounts as Jon Hayes comes to the charity line.

William Chrisman--The Hornets met William Chrisman in the N. K. C. Field House with an exuberant crowd looking on. The spectators obtained their money's worth as both teams played excellent basketball with the lead changing many times. Chrisman pulled away, though, with five minutes to play, and won 58-49. Jon Hayes and Rusty Stout were high scorers with 16 and 15 points respectively.

Lafayette--Northtown went to nearby St. Joseph, only to meet a red-hot Lafayette team. The stubborn Hornets tried to come from behind, but the Shamrocks held off their onslaught. Rusty Stout scored 16 points and Wayne Hauschild 14. The final score was 56-54.

Manual--In the first game of the Class L Regional Tournament, the North Kansas City Hornets lost to the Manual Cardinals. Each team played good basketball with hustling at its best. The Cardinals took the lead with 1:54 left and sustained it. The final score was Manual 44, N. K. C. 43.

Steve Wible demonstrates the "Hornet twist" to his opponent on the basketball floor.



Wyandotte--N. K. C. was host to Wyandotte on their home court. The Bulldogs were as hot as the Hornets were cold. Rusty Stout and Jon Hayes kept the Hornet offense from bogging down, while Steve Westfall and Reynold Weber were key defensive men. Wyandotte won 60-44.

William Chrisman--The Chrisman Bears clinched the Pony Express Conference Title with a 64-34 victory over N. K. C. Chrisman used a fast break and the inaccuracy of the Hornets to gain the win. Reynold Weber was the lone spark in the Hornet line-up with 15 points.

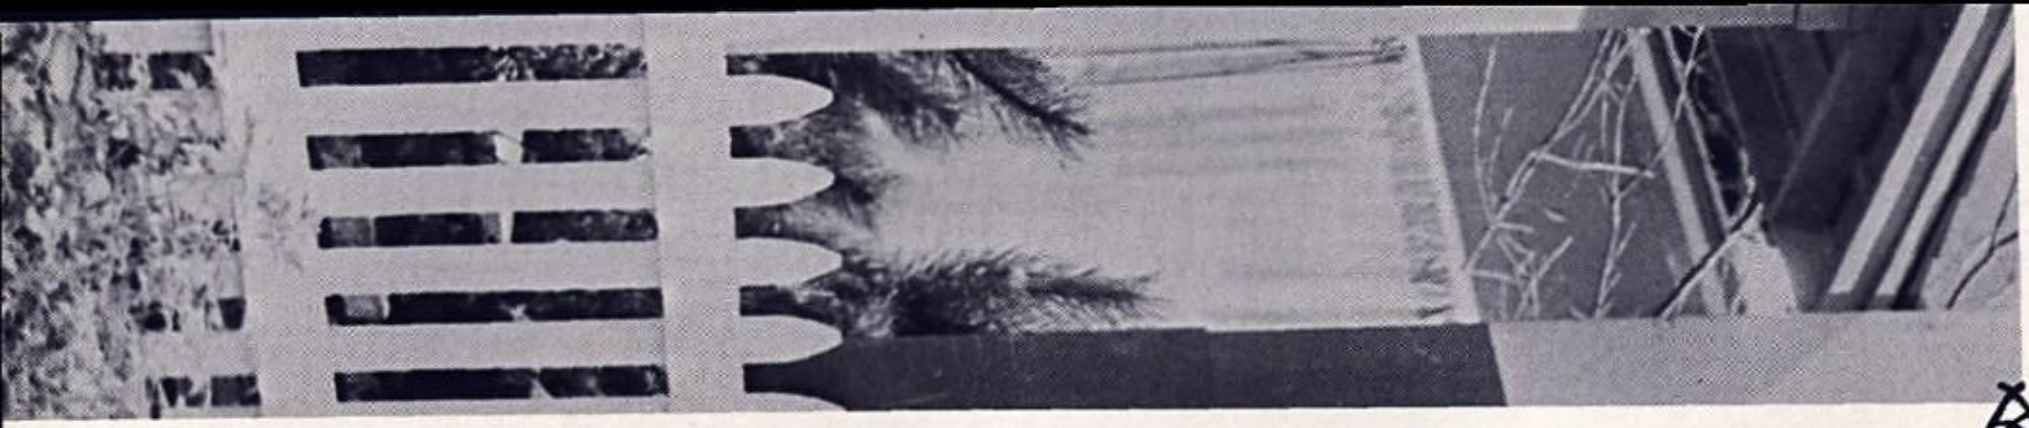
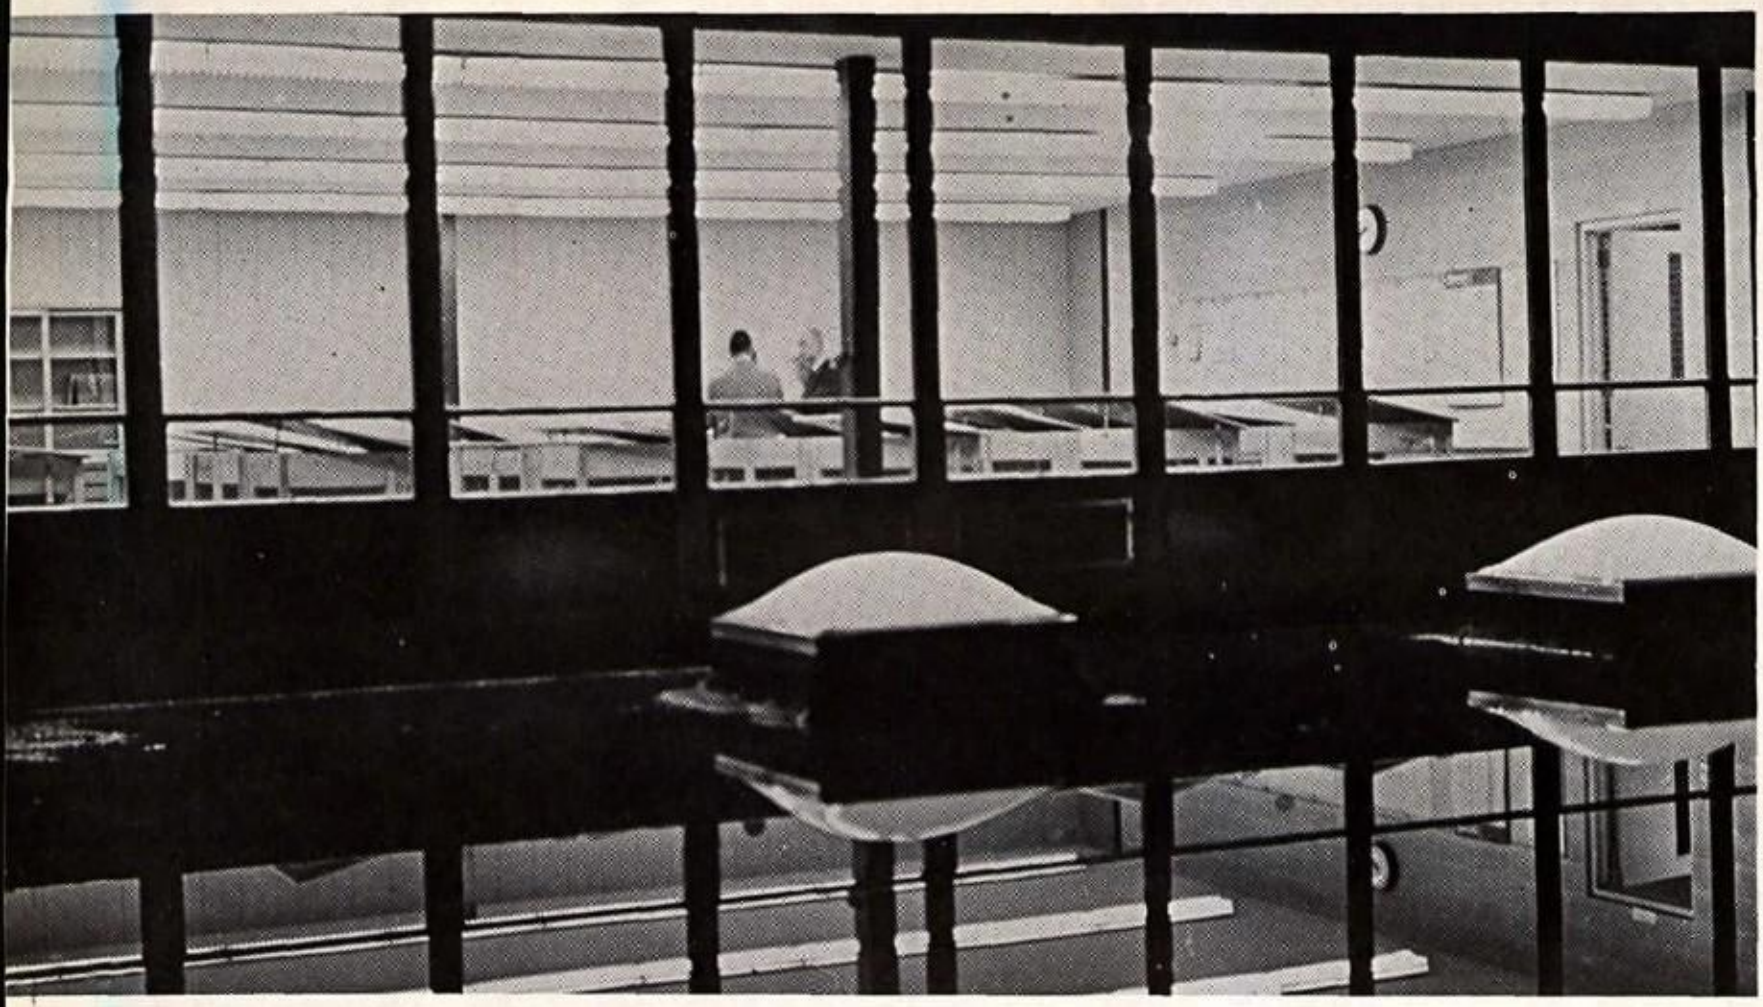
SPRING

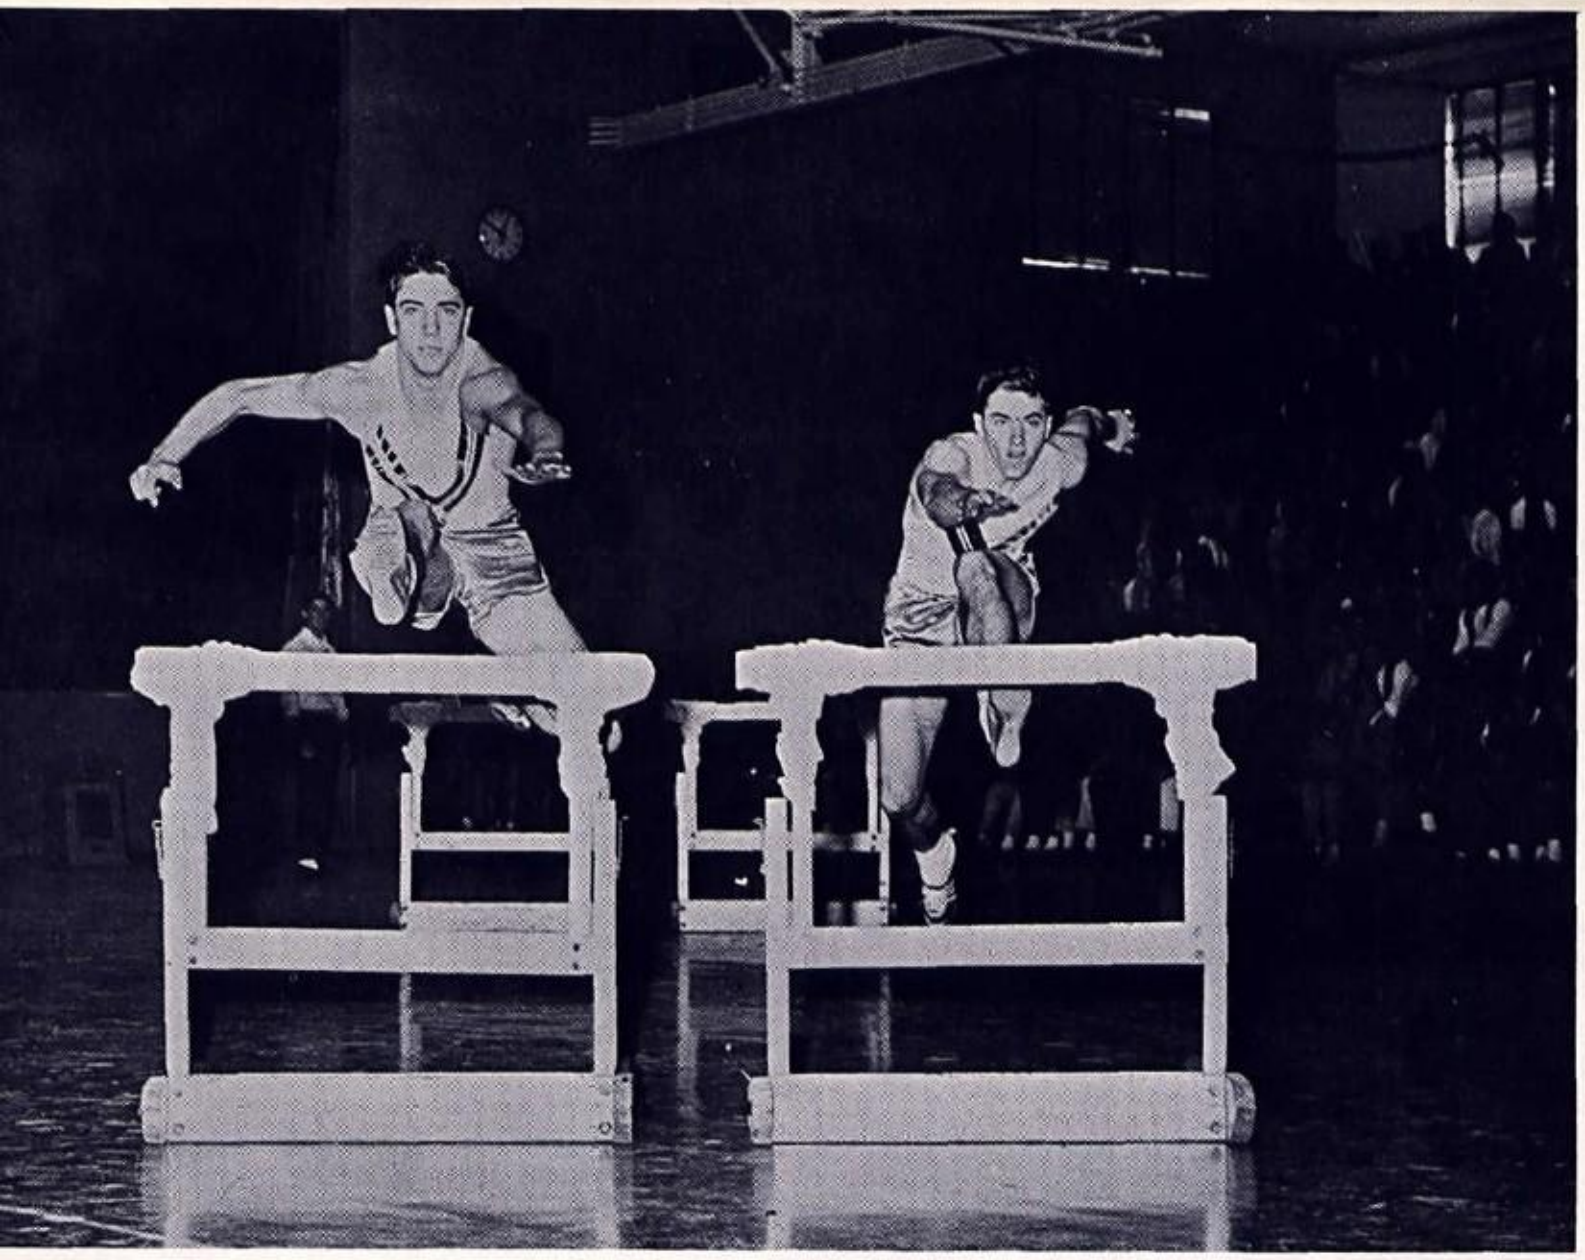


Spring came early bringing Hornets longer days, milder weather, and many special events. . . the senior class presented "Curtain Going Up" as their annual play. . . juniors started working early to prepare for their annual project, the junior-senior prom. . .



Signs of spring were visible wherever one turned . . . seniors began the end of their school careers by meeting to decide on their gift to the school and to take care of other last-minute business . . . Hornets were taken back to the Twenties with Modern Music Masters' musical, "Dearie, Do You Remember?" . . . many Hornets and their reflections could be seen with muddy shoes, wet hair, and dripping raincoats coming in out of the spring rains . . . but the rain also brought spring flowers that were enjoyed by all . . .

The warm weather persuaded many students to spend more time outdoors . . . spring sports started and athletic H o r n e t s displayed their prowess in track, tennis, baseball, and golf . . . the Y-Teens provided Hornets an opportunity to display their talents in "Meanwhile, Back At The Ranch" . . . the spring of 1962 quickly brought an exciting year of fun and work to a close.



Seniors

Senior class officers Barbara Olsen, treasurer; Rusty Stout, vice-president; Jon Hayes, president; Charlotte Fuller, secretary; and Pat McCrite, sgt.-at-arms, learn what big business is like as they conduct the affairs of the biggest senior class yet at NCKHS.

MINUTES OF THE MEETING

Class meeting in March was called to order by Jon Hayes, president. The committee chairmen, chosen earlier by Jon, reported. They are: Marcia Cobb, Baccalaureate; Jean Burcham and Lauree Sails, Cap and Gown; Carol Dunbar and Martye Underwood, Commencement; Jim Fuller and Grace Gleason, Gift; Scott Serrill, Picnic; and Larry Schmidt, Reunion. After the committee reports, it was decided to have an extra day in senior week instead of a class picnic. At the end of the meeting Jon announced that there were almost 300 book-covers that hadn't been sold. For the next ten minutes quarters rolled in as loyal seniors bought the last of the covers.
